ROBERTA RILEY

Dear Roberta,

After your five day struggle with bulbar polio, your Creator welcomed you home on January 14, 1955, just six days before your seventeenth birthday. You endured life's struggle and now you are enjoying the great happiness of being at home with God forever.

While living on earth you were typical of the finest traditions of Catholic High, as Cheerleader, Paladin Leader in the C.S.M.C., Tatler reporter, assistant sports editor, and Legionnaire of Mary.

As a tribute to you, two statues are now gracing the halls of Pueblo Catholic High: Our Lady of Grace, and Saint Maria Goretti. In addition, the Roberta Riley Polio Memorial Fund has been established.

We pray that it will be God's will for us to have as beautiful a death as you had, with Saint Therese, The Little Flower, by our side. God must have loved you much more than we did, or He would not have taken you.

As we go through life, we shall think of you always at our side, guarding and guiding us on the right path, so that some day we may be together again. You were truly one of the greatest Shamrocks of all!

Dear Sue,
 Wild, Sue, now's the time for annual beginning but there is no time for friendship and I hope our will always continue. I do wish you all the happiness and good-fortune that the world can offer. It is always a pleasure to wish the best to the best. Keep God on your side and then many wish your personal you. I hope you person by you. I hope you
 person by you. I hope you

Best of

Dear Sue,
 Best of luck to a real sweet and cute girl, who really deserves the best. Wish luck in the years to come especially next year. God bless you.

Dear Sue and all that stuff.

Well after all the nice things you wrote in my annual I can't help well tell you how I feel about you! (I'm only kidding). It is really sad - you this year. The best ever. Hope we can have the same even more next year. You're really been a swell pal.

DEDICATION TO SAINT THERESE

O Glorious Saint Therese, who for only a short time lived here on this earth, we, here at Pueblo Catholic High, beg that you shower us with the roses of strength which you so bravely carried throughout your life. From your childhood, to your girlhood, and finally to womanhood, you are the example of all us students.

You not only worked laboriously here on earth, but from the moment you breathed your last, your mission began on earth: "I wish to pass my life in Heaven doing good upon earth. Until the end of the world I can take no repose. But when the angel shall have said, 'Time exists no more,' then I shall rest."

Time still is . . . Therese, do not rest . . . Let your roses still fall.

Strengthen us, O Saint Therese, as God strengthened you here on earth. Teach us the words you once uttered: "O, how I love Him . . . My God . . . I love You."

I feel about you could never be put into a book this size. Be good and remember God always. Here's hoping & see you this summer.
 Always,
 Carol

St. Therese, Little Flower of Jesus and Patroness of the Diocese of Pueblo, help us follow the example of your Little Way, that we may more easily gain heaven.

PUEBLO CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

Our School . . . where many Shamrocks pass through its portals each day seeking warmth, good will, understanding, knowledge, and a Catholic way of life.

Your Excellency, the Most Reverend Joseph C. Willging, D.D. . . . St. Therese has chosen you to be the planter of her precious roses in the garden of this, your diocese, dedicated to her.

Dear Bishop, we thank you so very much for our special rose . . . Pueblo Catholic High.

Each and every one of us express our deepest and most fervent gratitude by dedicating this book to your Patroness, who has done so much for you and all of us in the Diocese of Pueblo. May St. Therese continue to entrust you with her roses.

OUR PASTORS

O Blessed St. Therese, watch over and guide our pastors who are steeped in humility and aflame with divine love for God. We deeply appreciate your untiring efforts and your ceaseless works.

Your helping others will not go unrewarded. St. Therese once said, "The day will come when shadows will disappear; then nothing will remain save joy and delight."

Out of the depths of this valley of tears, through which suffering humanity painfully struggles . . . up from the bellows of this sea endlessly buffeted by the waves of suffering . . . we raise our eyes to you, Most Beloved Mother Mary, to be comforted by the contemplation of your glory and to hail you as Queen and Mistress of Mankind.

With legitimate filial pride, we wish to exalt your queen-ship and to recognize it as due to the sovereign excellence of your entire being, O Most Sweet True Mother of Him who is King by right, by inheritance, and by conquest.

Reign, O Mother and Mistress, by showing us the path of holiness and by guiding and assisting us that we may never stray from it.

In the heights of heaven, you exercise your primacy over the choirs of angels, who acclaim you as their sovereign, and over the legions of saints, who delight in beholding your dazzling beauty. So, too, reign over the entire human race, above all by opening the path of faith to those who do not know your Divine Son.

Reign over the Church, which acknowledges and extols your gentle dominion and has recourse to you as a safe refuge amid the calamities of our day. Reign especially over that part of the Church which is persecuted and oppressed; give it strength to bear adversity, constancy never to yield under unjust compulsion, light to avoid falling into enemy snares, firmness to resist overt attack, and at every moment unwavering faithfulness to your kingdom.

Reign over men's minds, that they may seek only what is true; over their wills, that they may follow solely what is good; over their hearts, that they may love nothing but what you yourself love.

Reign over individuals and over families, as well as over societies and nations; over the assemblies of the powerful, the counsels of the wise as over the simple aspirations of the humble.

Reign in the streets and the squares, in the cities and the villages, in the valleys and the mountains, in the air, on land and on the sea; and hear the pious prayer of all those who recognize that yours is a reign of mercy, in which every petition is heard, every sorrow comforted, every misfortune relieved, every infirmity healed, and in which, at a gesture from your gentle hands, from death itself there arises smiling life.

Obtain for us that all who now, in every corner of the world, acclaim and hail you Queen and Mistress, may one day in heaven enjoy the fullness of your kingdom in the vision of your divine Son, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost, lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

PRIESTS WHO TEACH RELIGION AT PUEBLO CATHOLIC HIGH

Saint Therese has a special shower of roses for our Religion priests, as she once said, "I entered Carmel in order to save souls, especially to pray for priests."

Here at Pueblo Catholic High, these sons of God devote their valuable time so that we may be prepared to meet the many challenges we must face in our lives, in such a manner that is fitting for the salvation of our souls.

May you receive many spiritual gifts from Saint Therese for your never-tiring efforts in bringing us, the students of Pueblo Catholic High, a better understanding of the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank you, Monsignor, for the beneficial guidance that you have extended to us high school students this year. Never has your door been closed to those in need of your help. With the basis of a good Christian foundation, given us here at Pueblo Catholic High, we will become good Christian citizens as Saint Therese and you both want us to be.

Again, we thank you for the counsel and friendship shown to us grateful students.

VERY REVEREND MONSIGNOR
ELWOOD C. VOSS

REVEREND DANIEL R. HUBER

FATHER HUBER . . .

Beloved assistant of Saint Therese Parish, you have come to us through the guidance and inspiration of Saint Therese, Little Flower of Jesus. How often the students have come to you with their daily troubles and have been received with the kindness and gentleness of your heart. You have given new hope to many by your words and have given inspiration to many more by your actions.

For this and all you have done for us, we are eternally grateful and we sincerely hope that Saint Therese will continue to shower upon you her choicest roses.

Blessings, like roses from heaven, have showered down on the students attending Pueblo Catholic High. The blessing we are proudest and most thankful for is our school chapel, where students come every day to seek guidance, help, and forgiveness.

Dear Sue!

Many thanks for your confidence during the past three years. you are a wonderful girl and it's been a real pleasure having you in class. I'll truly miss the spirit that you have displayed and hope that the coming year brings you the best there is.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

O marvelous Saint Therese, we, who are about to leave these gay and happy halls of Catholic High, beg your intercession to help us maintain our goal which God has intended for us to reach.

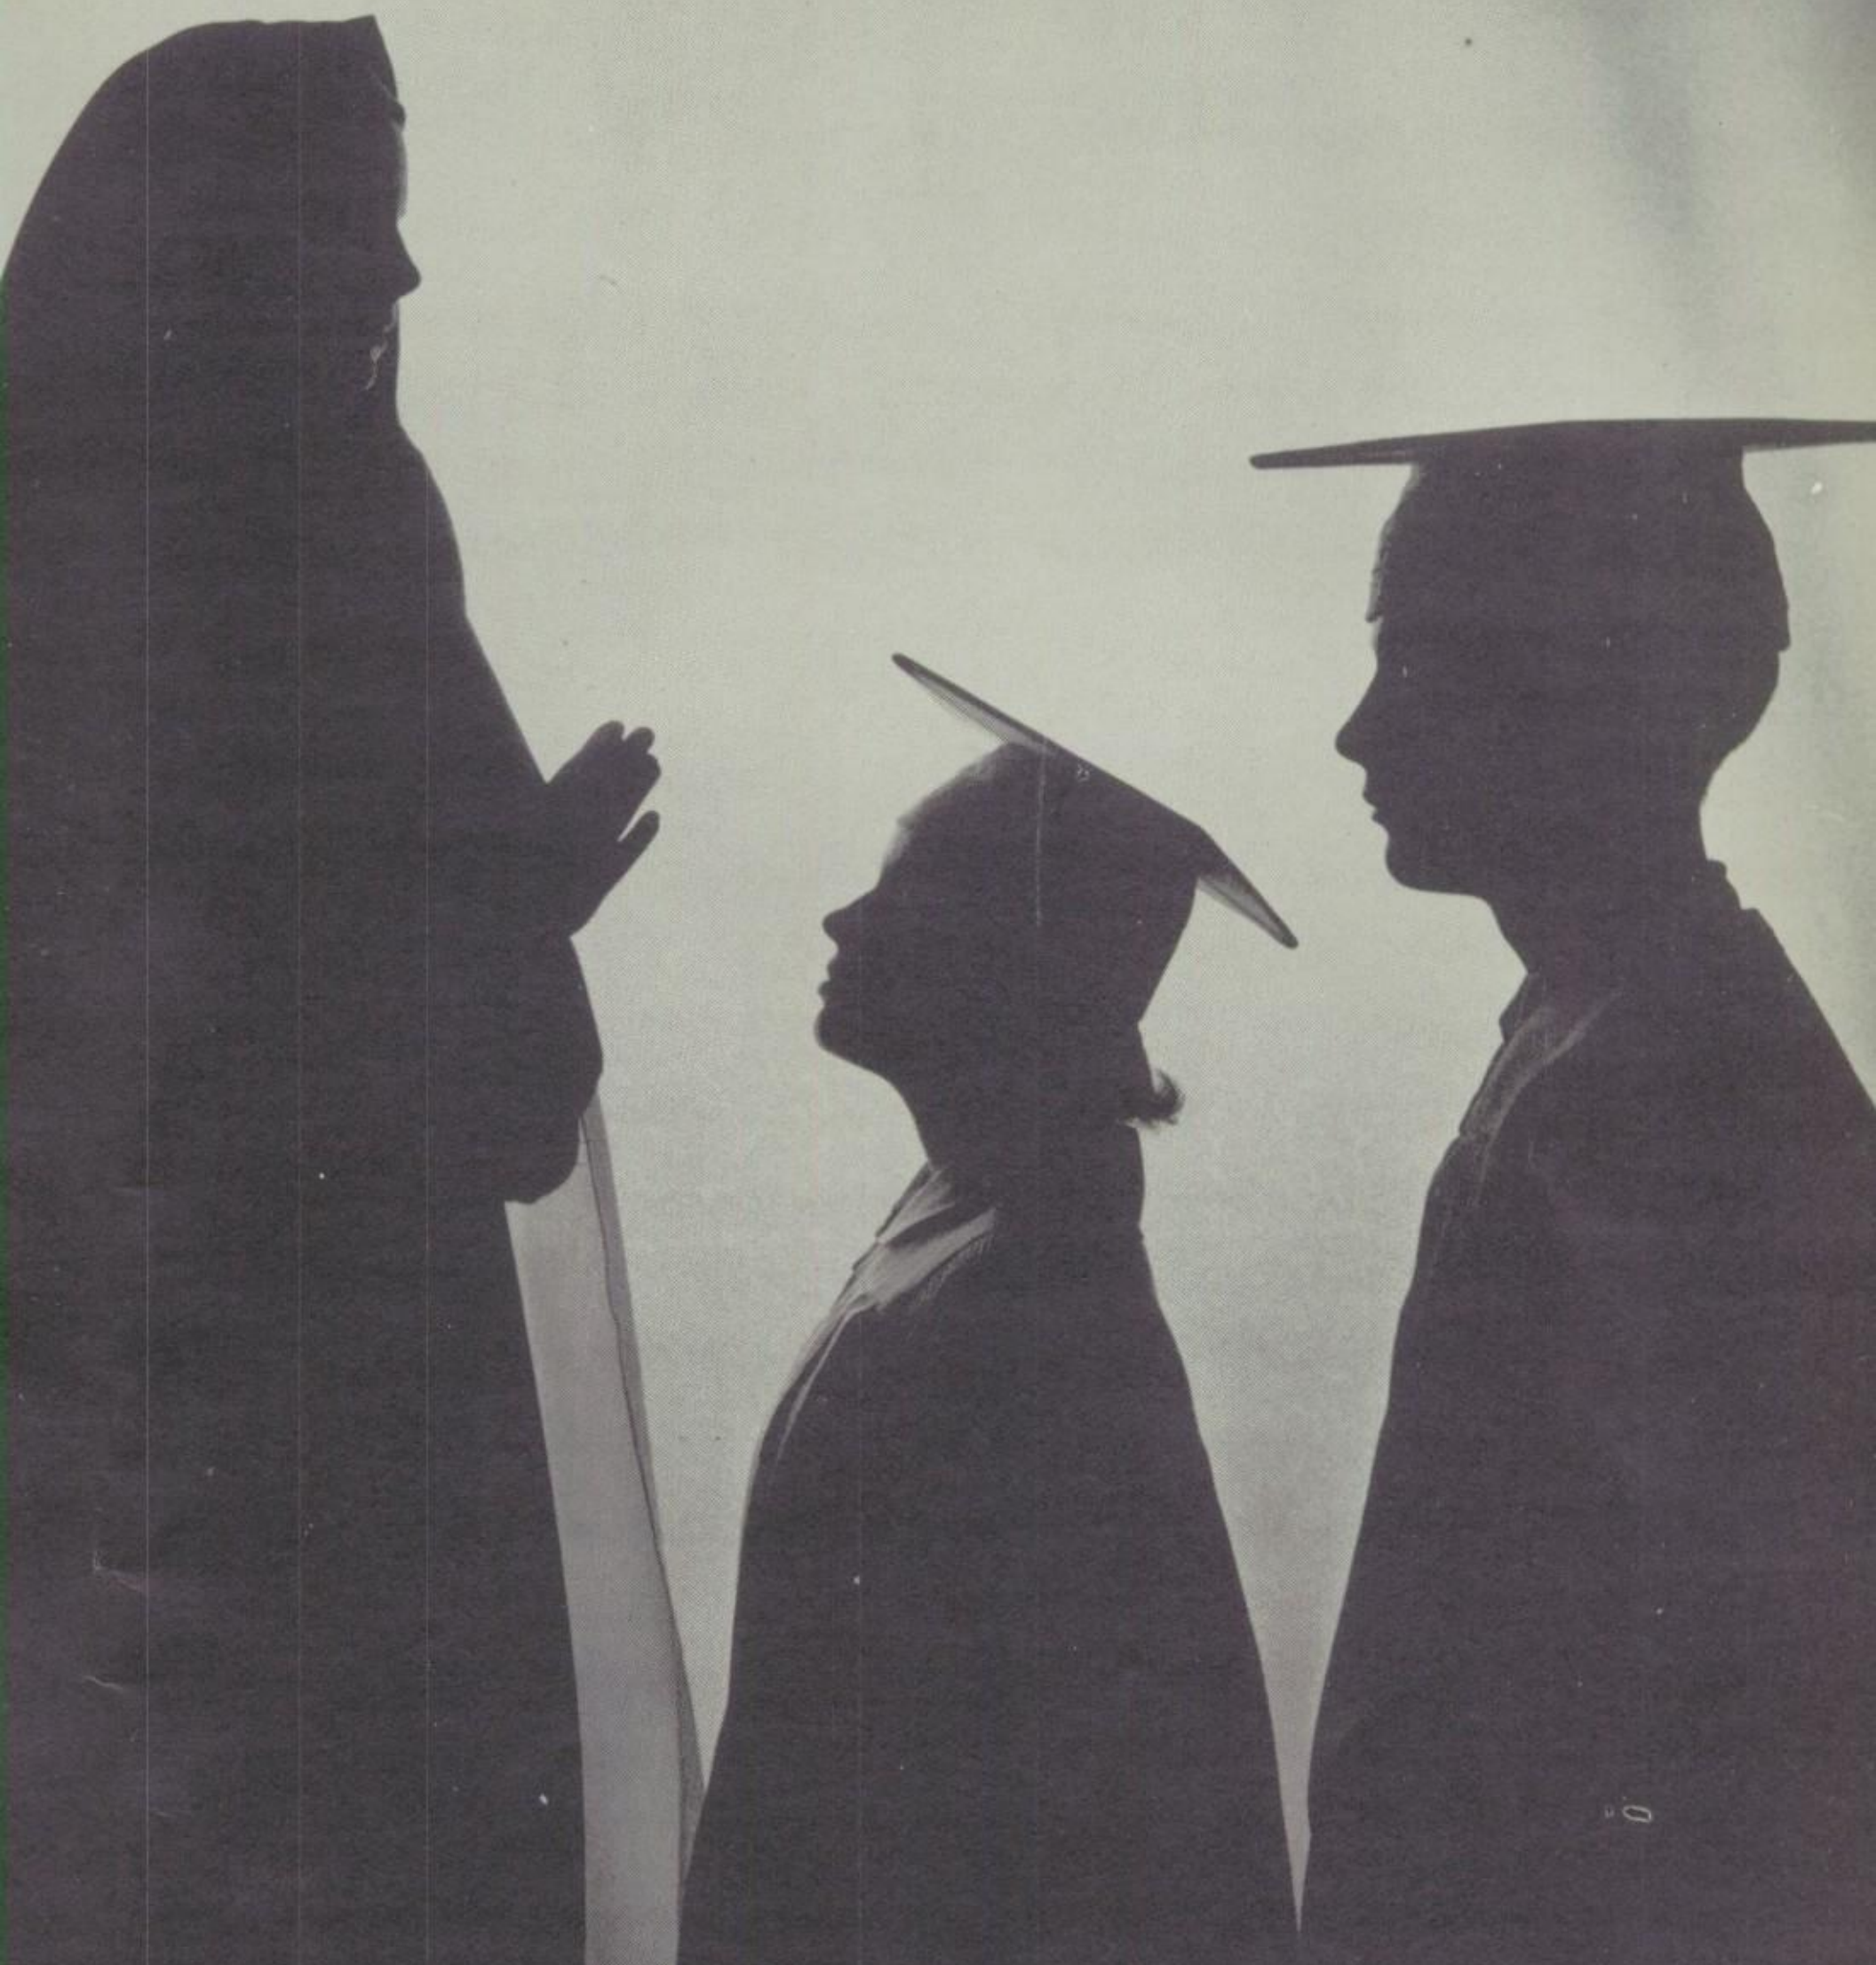

Before we depart from the ringing of the halls of PCH . . . the day the Bishop celebrated Mass for the opening of the school year 1951-52 . . . Election of Class officers, James Rodacy, President; Margie Pechek, Vice President; Shiela Marsden, Secretary; Virgil Valdez, Treasurer . . . The dance was held just for us . . . When the Irish captured the Southern Colorado Parochial League trophy and later went on to become State Champions . . . The Christmas holidays . . . Semester exams . . . Our retreat master, Father Charles Jones of Denver . . . The free days . . . and final exams.

As we enter into our Sophomore year we meet Elizabeth Curtis, Patricia Schum, Reuben Trinidad, and Jennie Watta . . . This is the year we had the play, "Big Help" . . . Sadie Hawkins Day Dance . . . Majorettes for the band . . . Minstrel Show . . . Mister Davlin's first year . . . Sister Ellenora's first year as principal . . . Very Reverend Monsignor James O'Neil, retired army chaplain, for our retreat master . . . and the day we were made juniors . . .

In our Junior year we were introduced to Sharyn Baum and Jack Kennedy . . . Here we had a "Stardust" Homecoming . . . Halloween Dance . . . The Holy Father proclaimed the Marian Year . . . We portrayed the English customs in "Christmas a la Carte" . . . Terry Brennan, principal speaker at All Sports Banquet . . . permission granted to have Our Lord in our own chapel . . . The prom and banquet, all under the title of "Enchanted Garden" held here in school . . . and the card which officially proclaimed us, SENIORS.

In our journey along the last mile we are joined by Patricia Mastagni and Francis Mondragon . . . "The Marian Whirl" with Margie Pechek reigning as Queen and her four lovely attendants, Patricia Ovechka, Rosemary Sackman, Corinne Scolere, and Shirley Mauro . . . Student Council Campaign for officers, with Jack Lacy winning the Presidency, Jim Massara, Vice President, Patricia Schum, Secretary, and Janet Schum, Treasurer . . . the three individuals for retreat . . . the closing of the Marian Year . . . the press convention . . . Our prom . . . and the Glorious day of Graduation.

SCHOOL-LIFE

Father William Doll defines, teaches, and explains to the Seniors the fundamentals of Apologetics.

Freshmen study the Life of Christ and His Apostles in Father Michael Corbett's Religion class.

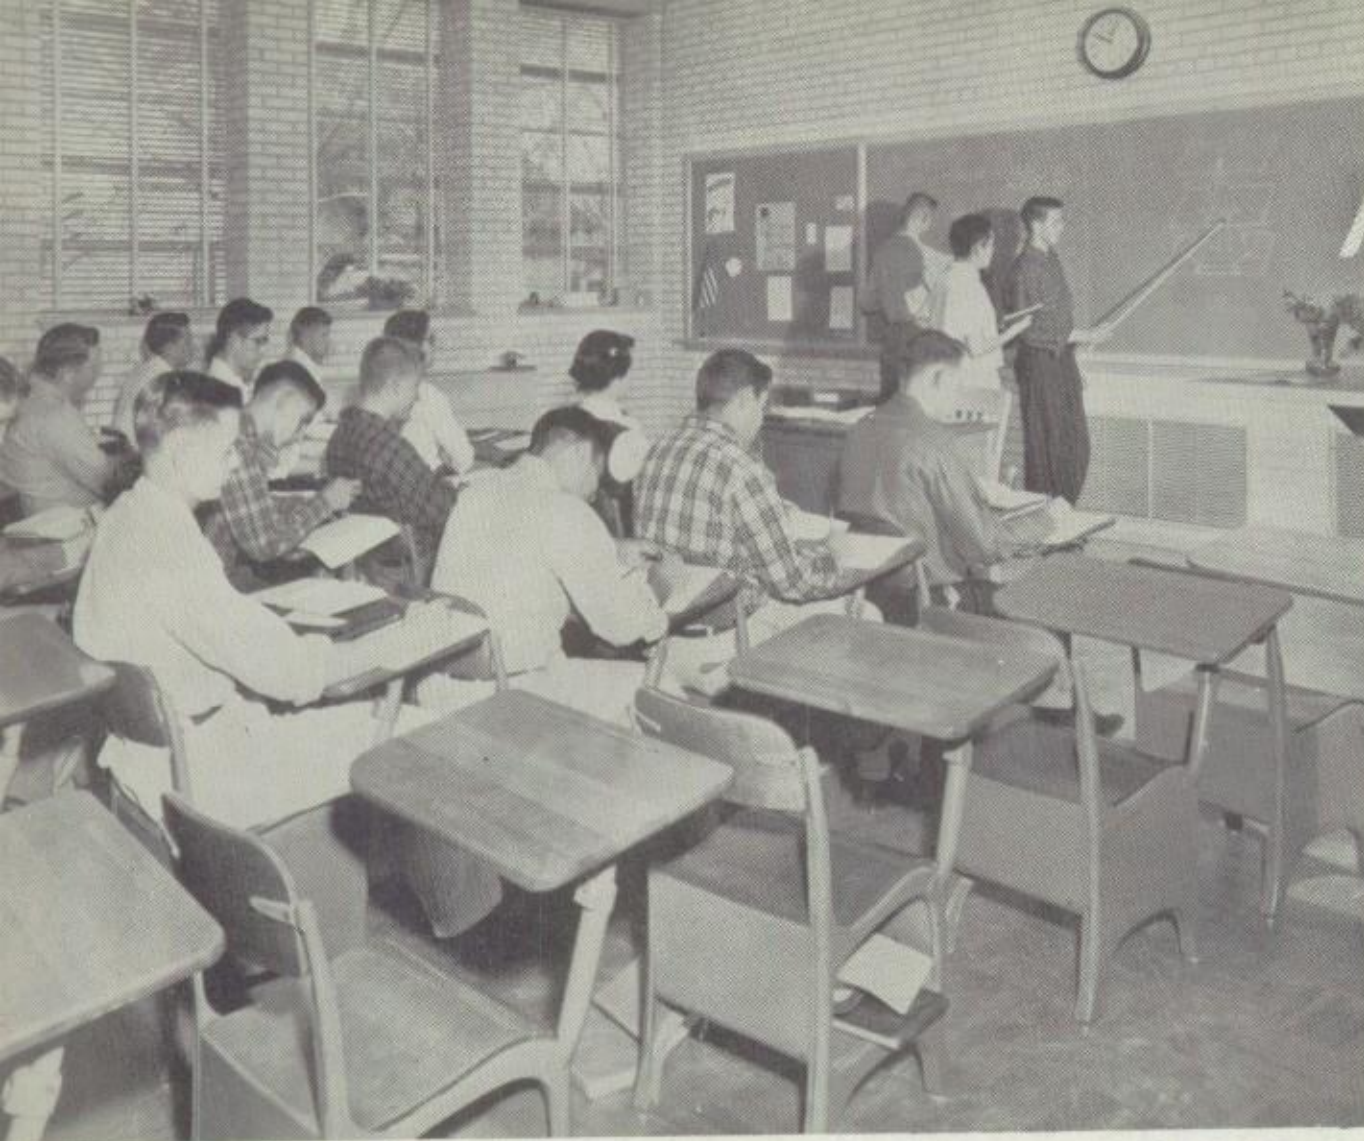

In Father Dennis Langdon's O.S.B. Religion Class, the Sophomores are taught Church History, the Sacraments, and Grace.

Father John McGuinness explains to Juniors the reasons for their existence and their duties toward God, individuals, and society.

Dick Micklich, Virgil Valdez, and Ken Kochevar, Seniors in Solid Geometry, explain the intricacies of prisms and pyramids.

Mary Ann Arrigo and Joe Papish look on as Larry Smith proves that angle B equals angle E.

Frosh in Coach Davlin's Algebra I class seem eager and anxious to learn the fundamentals of mathematics.

The recorded rich and tragic voice of Maurice Evans accompanies Sister Mary Noreen's English IV class as they recite "Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow . . ."

A short story or a letter to Santa? Sister Angela Marie's Freshman English class.

Robert Montez, Mary Matulich, Margie Maurello, and Betty Jo Whalen, Sophomores in Sister Carita's English, demonstrate the diagramming of simple and complex sentences.

Freshman Latin students of Sister Mary Noreen not only learn the declensions but also display their soap carvings depicting Roman architecture.

Sister Agnes Patrice's Latin III students compare, discuss, and debate term papers on Cicero.

Sister Mary Aniceta's Spanish class take time out from verb drills to get acquainted with the culture of our neighbors south of the border.

Margie Pechek, Geraldine Butkovich, Rosemarie DeTata, and Joanne Mesojedic, Seniors in Sister Rose Anita's Shorthand II class, prepare for our secretaries of tomorrow.

"Practice makes perfect." This is the motto of all Senior typists in Sister Rose Anita's second year Typing class.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Walsh donates his precious time each Friday to teach the combined Sociology classes of Sister Mary Aniceta and Sister Therese Martin.

Sophomores learn the elements of General Science in Coach John Neari's class.

The clothing lab is a busy place. Serious students learn, under the direction of Sister Angela Marie, the processes involved in producing stylish garments.

Maureen McKenna, Charlotte Skube, Bob Cardinal, and Frank Javornik demonstrate the finer points of makeup to Sister Carita's Speech class. The models are Carl Fiechtl and Sherman French.

ACTIVITIES

Smiles of anticipation are prevalent as these fifteen C.S.M.C. delegates prepare to leave by car for La Junta, where they boarded the El Capitan bound for Notre Dame University for the Sixteenth National C.S.M.C. Convention.

"O Mary Queen of the Apostles, pray for the missions that all may know the Saviour of the World—Amen."

This simple prayer is the foundation of our Catholic Students' Mission Crusade. At every meeting or gathering of Crusaders this plea to Mary is offered.

However, weekly sacrifices are also contributed by the students of P.C.H. to further work in foreign and home mission fields.

Under the able guidance of Sister Mary Noreen, the C.S.M.C. Executive Council have achieved the purpose of bringing about a stronger love for the missions here at P.C.H.

Besides working for the missions, the C.S.M.C. invited U. S. Congressman, third district of Colorado, J. Edgar Chenoweth, to address the Student body for a general assembly.

During the assembly the members of the delegation to Notre Dame, August 26-29, 1954, made reports on their experiences where they met many students from all over the world.

Bob Lalich, President of the school C.S.M.C., introduces the Honorable Congressman J. Edgar Chenoweth to Monsignor Elwood C. Voss. Mr. Chenoweth appeared at a school assembly and spoke against the admission of Red China into the United Nations.

SPRIT OF CATHOLIC HIGH

You see them often upon the field,
The instruments they carry form a shield.

They work long and hard but little recognition they get,
Some people think it's all in jest.

Formations they make, and music they play,
To entertain the crowds for just one day.

Many are the hours spent in plight,
So as to look good on first sight.

Stray notes you may hear, and trumpets may blare,
But on they march without a single care.

Although in number they are few,
The band itself is always true.

However it isn't all work and no play,
There are always plenty of laughs during the practice day.

Trophies we have contributed to the school,
Although very small, the intentions were true.

Instruments in one hand, Rosary in the other,
They always pray for their Shamrock brothers.

Mary Jo Glick, Corinne Scolere, and William Arnott.

Trumpet player Jeanne Jersin shakes the hand of Lt. Commander Charles Brendler, U.S.N., Director of Navy Band.

Catholic High Band receives the honor of greeting the United States Navy Band on their arrival in Pueblo.

Members of the Junior Red Cross: Betty Lou Pavol, Carol Miklich, and Jeanne Spitzer, display Thanksgiving favors made by their organization for the soldiers in Fort Carson Hospital.

Prayers of Thanksgiving are whispered by football co-captain Reuben Trinidad and head cheerleader Lillian Luna. Representing the student body of PCH, they kneel in the school chapel surrounded by God's gifts; trophies and various awards.

Seniors, John Musso, Joe Puleo, Reuben Trinidad, Pat Schum and Shelia Marsden prepare to distribute baskets, contributed by Catholic High students, to the needy of Pueblo, at Thanksgiving.

HOMECOMING

Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was celebrated at 8:00 at St. Patrick's Church.

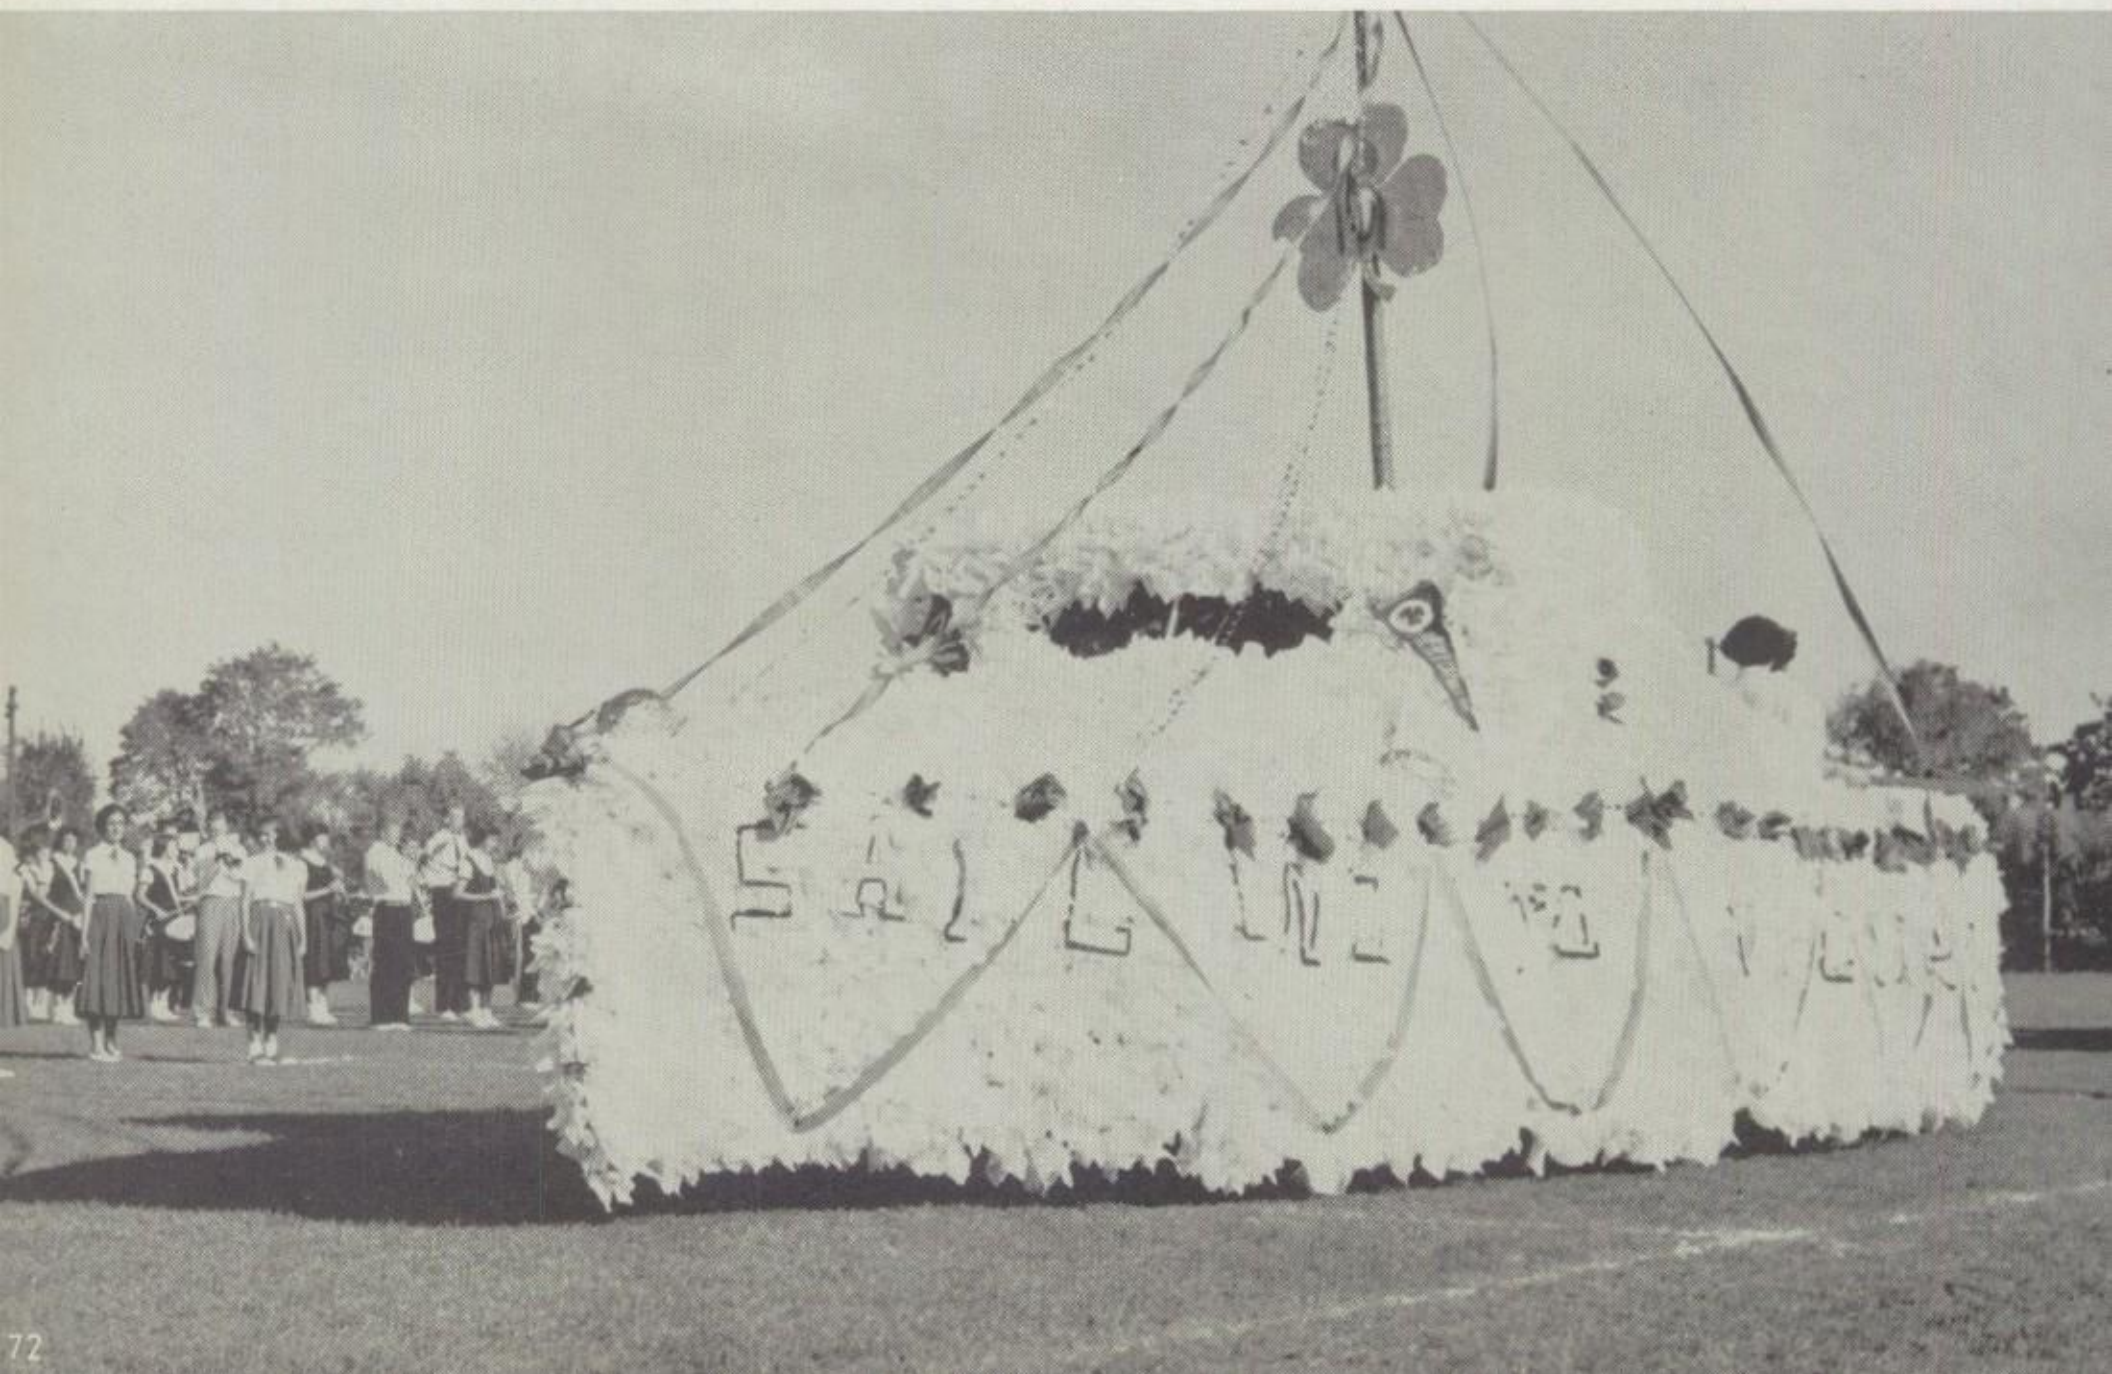

Homecoming Royalty enters the Gridiron. Queen Margie Pechek with her attendants Patricia Ovehka, Rosemary Sackman, Corinne Scolere and Shirley Mauro.

"Sailin' to Victory," proved true for these jolly Freshmen who copped first prize with their beautiful green, white and gold float.

Working at the Villa Marie, the Sophomore Class portrayed Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town," which copped the coveted second prize in the traditional Homecoming Parade.

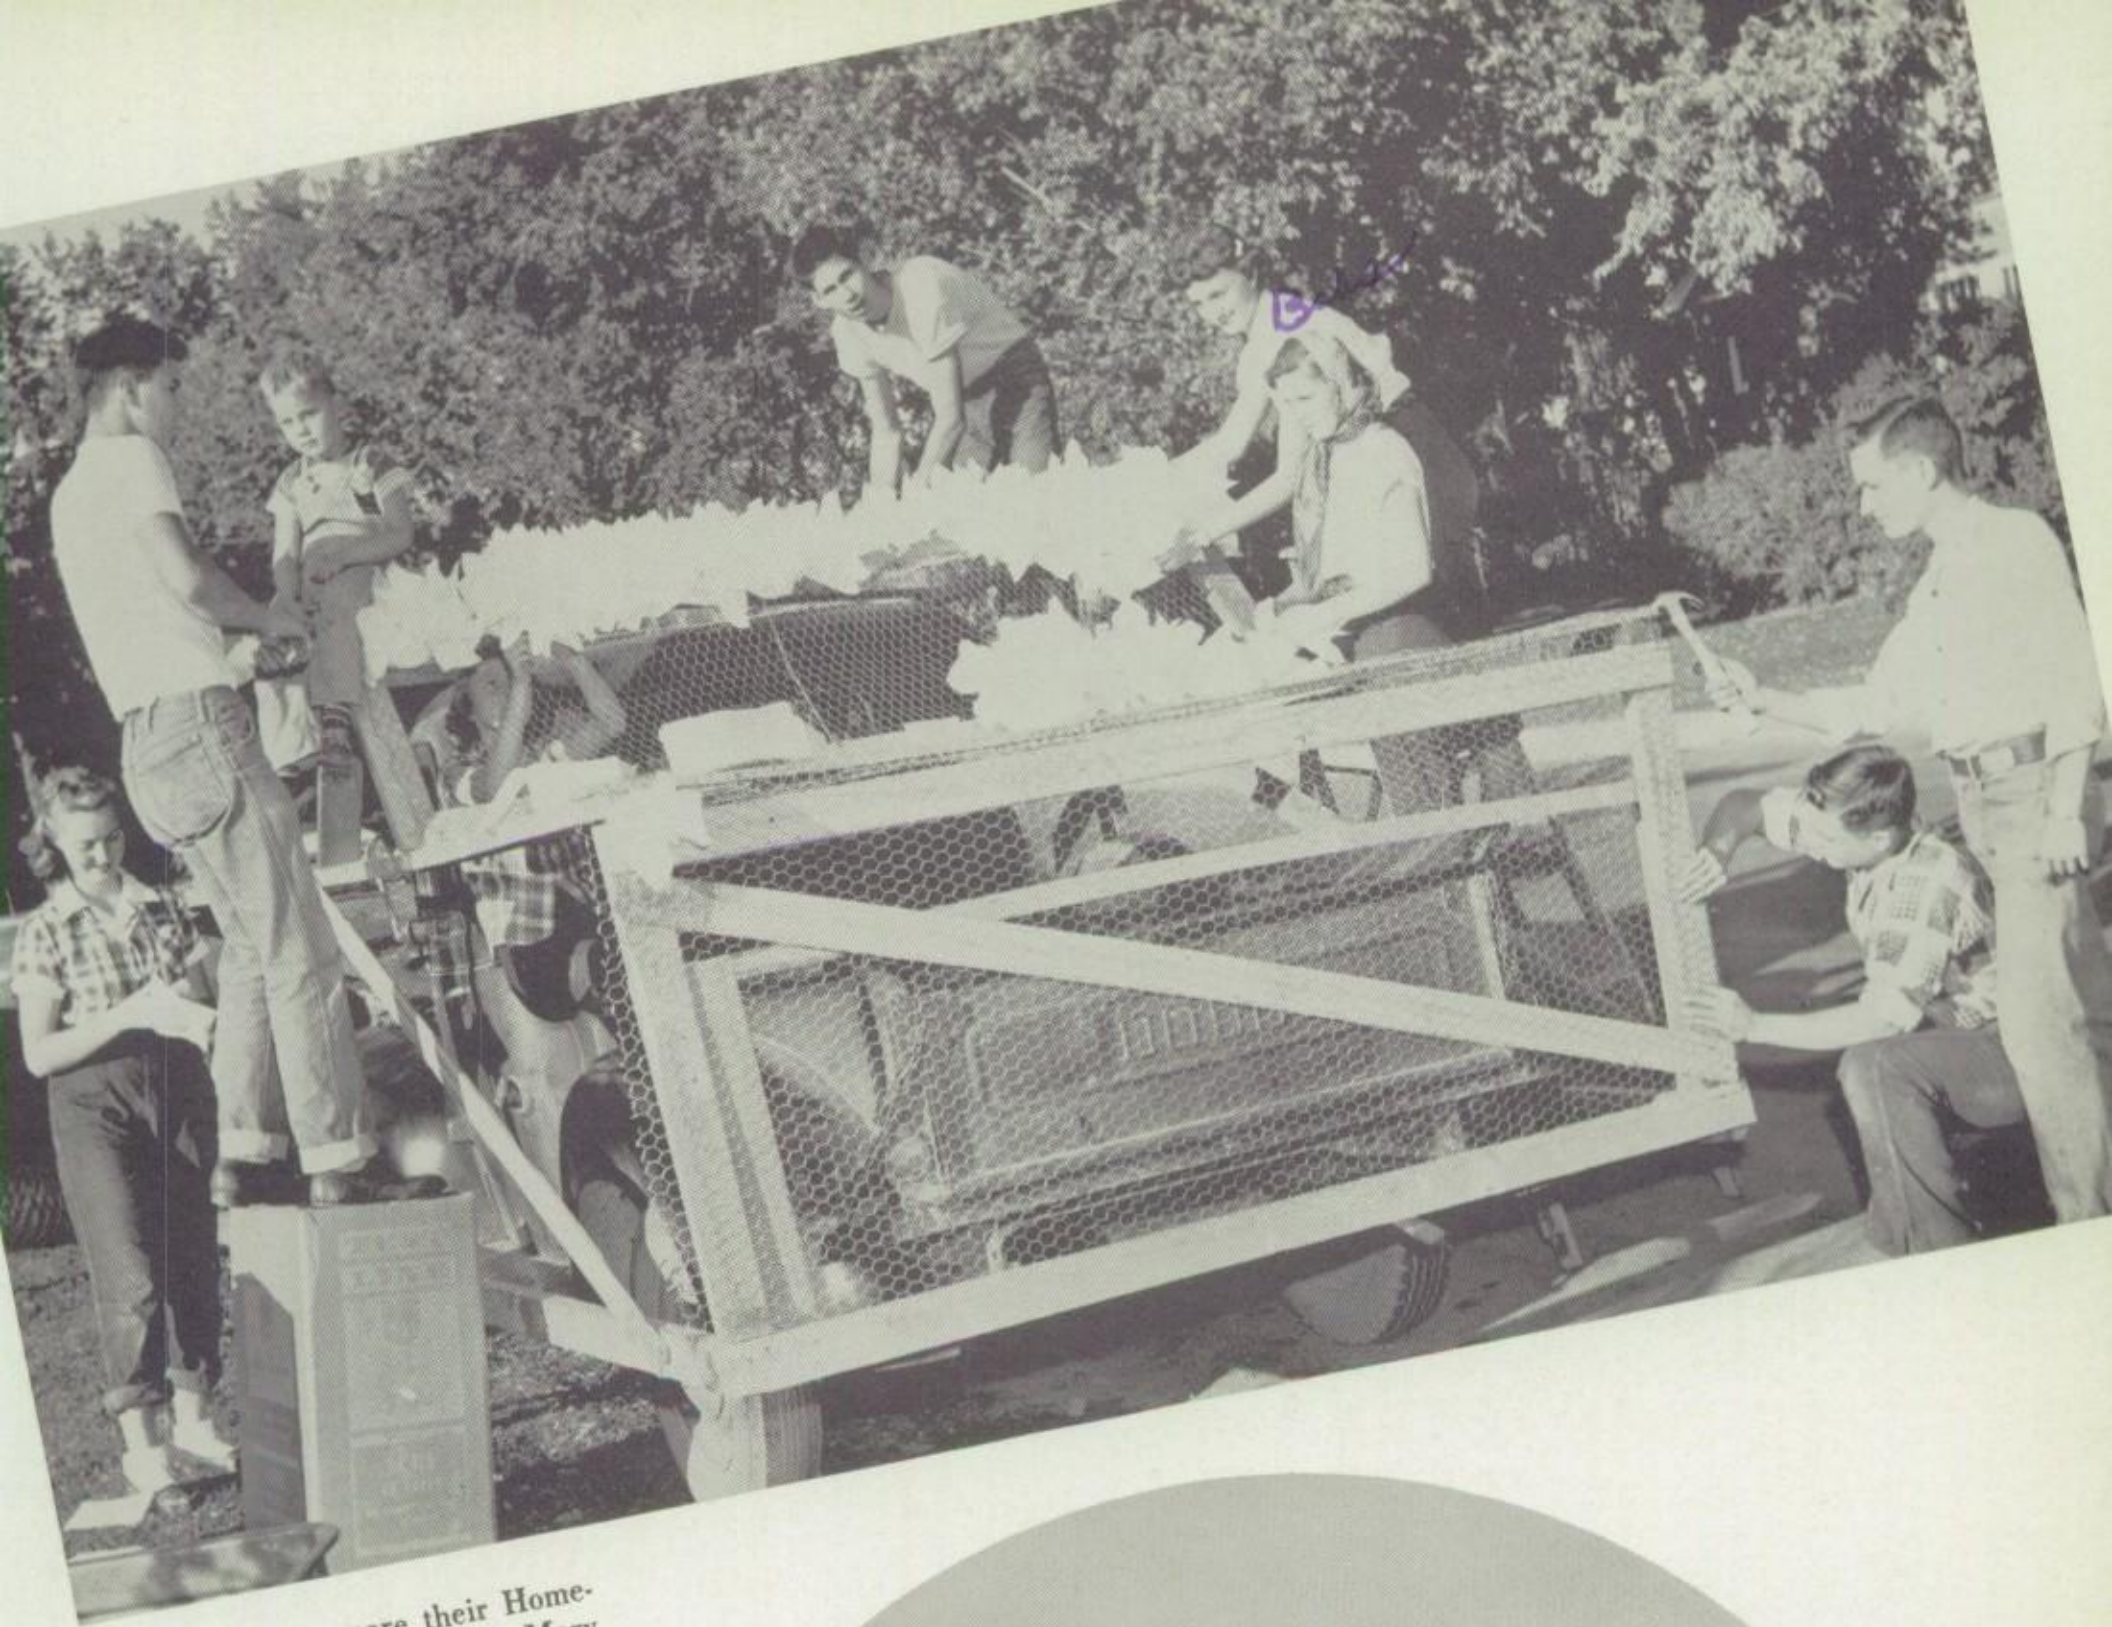

Laboring nearly a hundred strong, the ambitious Seniors of '55 worked long, happy hours on perfecting their "Swing to Victory." Third place was awarded this green, white and gold creation.

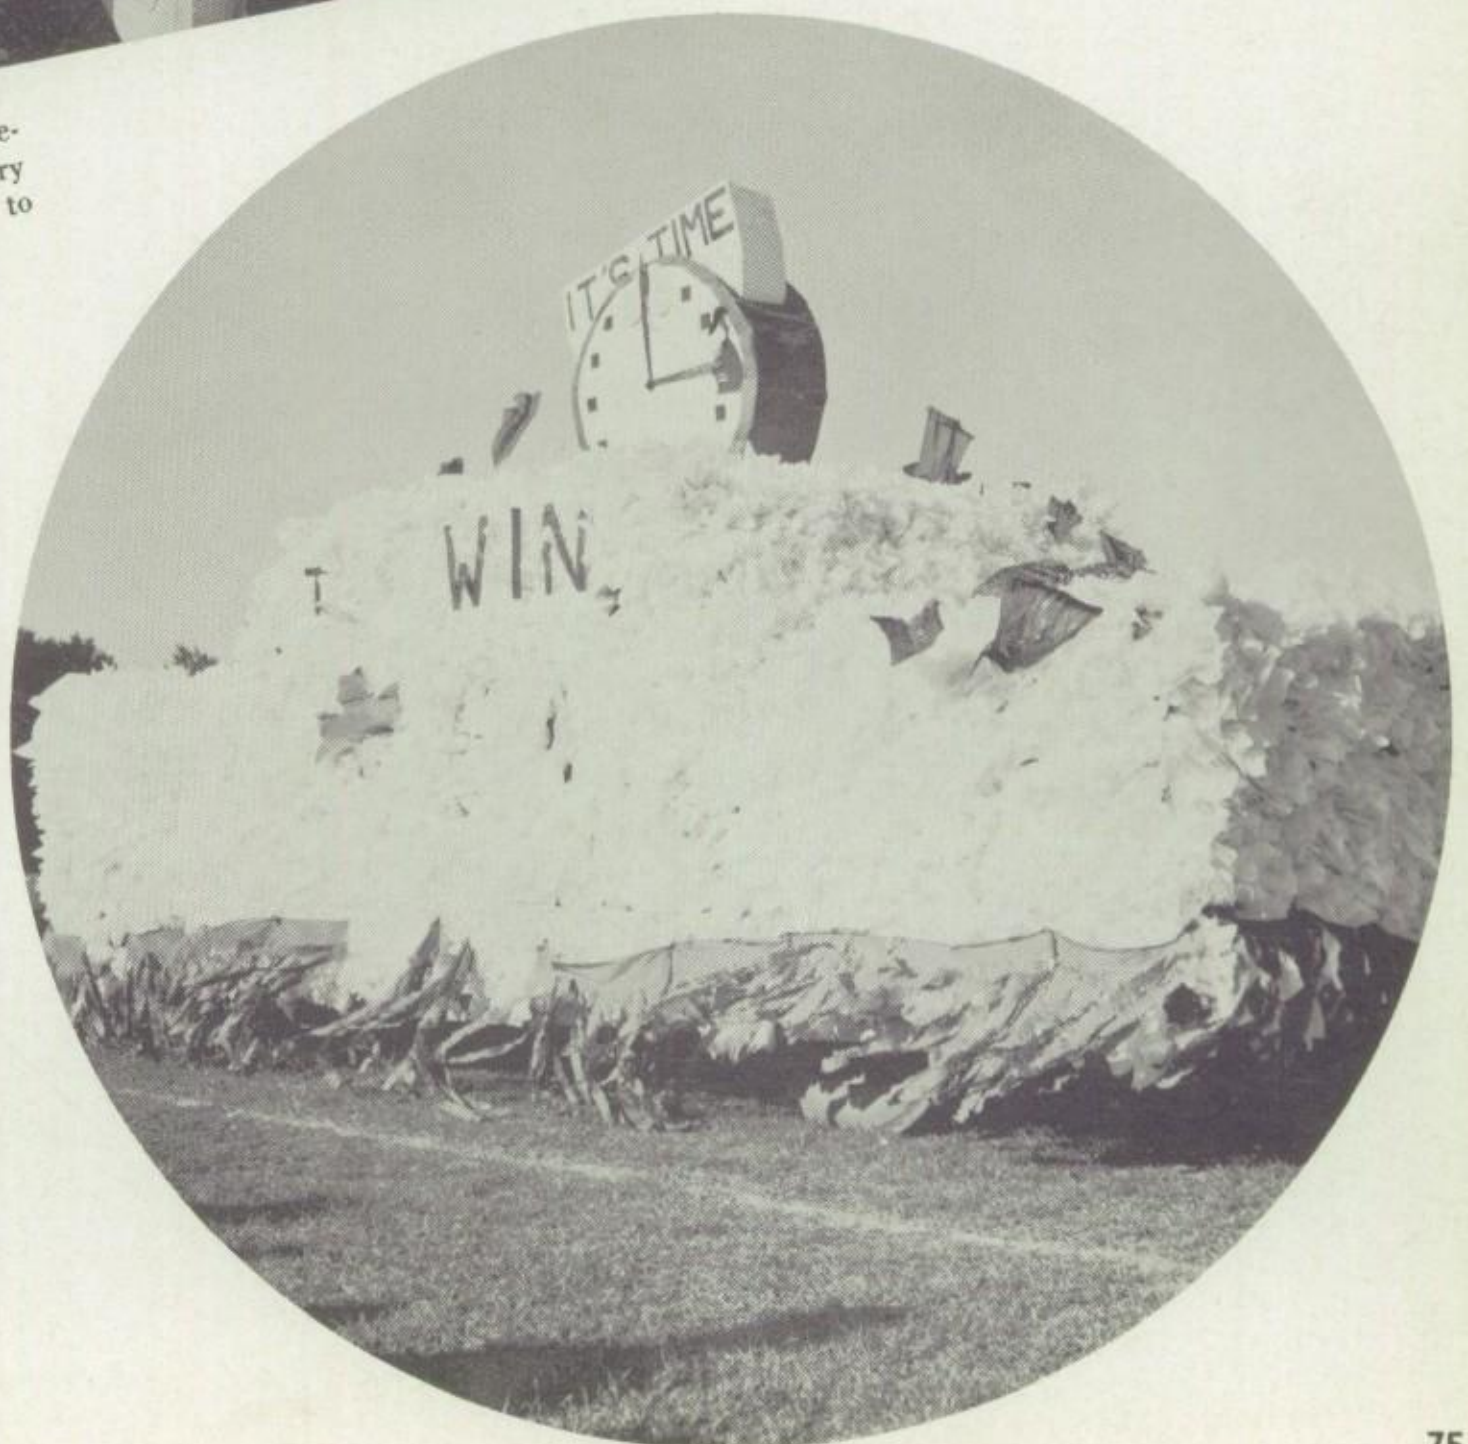

Shown on the float are Senior class officers, Sally Beatty and Bob Lalich, along with Raymond Martino, future Shamrock.

Class of '56 prepare their Homecoming at the home of Mary Lynn Wagner. "It's Time to Win," come in fourth.

The Juniors spent most of their pre-Homecoming days in decorating the gym for the "Marian Whirl."

Co-Captain Reuben Trinidad crowned Margie, "Queen of the Shamrocks," during half-time festivities of the Homecoming game with the St. Mary's Crusaders of Walsenburg. Jim Drury, other Shamrock co-captain, presented flowers to Margie's attendants, Corinne Scolere, Patricia Ovechka, Rosemary Sackman and Shirley Mauro.

The Shamrocks were victorious over the Crusaders 25-12.

Climaxing the celebration, the annual Homecoming dance was held in the school gym.

In honor of the fading Marian Year, the Juniors selected the "Marian Whirl" as the dance theme.

Through the cooperation of nearly everyone affiliated with Pueblo Catholic High, the annual Christmas play, "As It Is In Heaven," was presented December 19, at 8:00 p. m. in the auditorium.

The silver bells ring to announce the coming of their Queen.

CHRISTMAS PLAY

Archangels Michael, Uriel, Gabriel, and Raphael, played by Robert Guphill, Robert Lalich, Robert Pugel, and Jake Dovgan respectively, re-enact their parts of the first Christmas, before Mary, Queen of the Angels, and her court. The part of Mary was portrayed by Charlotte Ovechka.

As It Is In Heaven, the annual Christmas Play, brought the shepherds from afar to worship the Infant King, Mary and Joseph.

Seniors rehearse their lines for the class play, "The Adorable Spendthrift," which was held April 22 and 24. There was a dual cast which included, seated, from left: Art McKenna, Sherry Harsch, Steve Kralik, Sheila Marsden, Lillian Luna, James Rodacy, and Marlene Bierig. Stand-

SENIOR PLAY

Congratulations, Carolyn Kottenstette! You were the first member of the Mardi Gras $20.00 Quota Club. The Mardi Gras was a huge success and the students obtained two free days by selling their quota of $8,000 on the 1955 Oldsmobile '88. Seated: Leona Reinert, Ticket Tabulator,

ASSEMBLIES

CHRISTMAS AT CATHOLIC HIGH

Bob Zayac, Steve Kralik and Janet Schum prepare for Student Council's "Yuletide Glide."

MELODY IN MAY

The melodious tones glided among the evergreen and holly, and the gaily dressed Shamrocks gathered to dance the evening away. The gentle music by Jimmy Howard, lent a feeling of enchantment to the happy scene. The theme . . .

"Yuletide Glide"

. . . was carried out by the beautiful decorations in the gym. Over 100 Colorado Blue Spruce and balsam trees brought Christmas to the hearts of the "Yuletide Gliders."

On the night of December 29, everyone present experienced the enchantment of the Christmas Dance.

The 1955 Prom Committee took the moonlight from the moon, the twinkle from the stars, and the enchantment from the night, combined them with the music of Jimmy Howard and staged the 1955 Junior-Senior Prom.

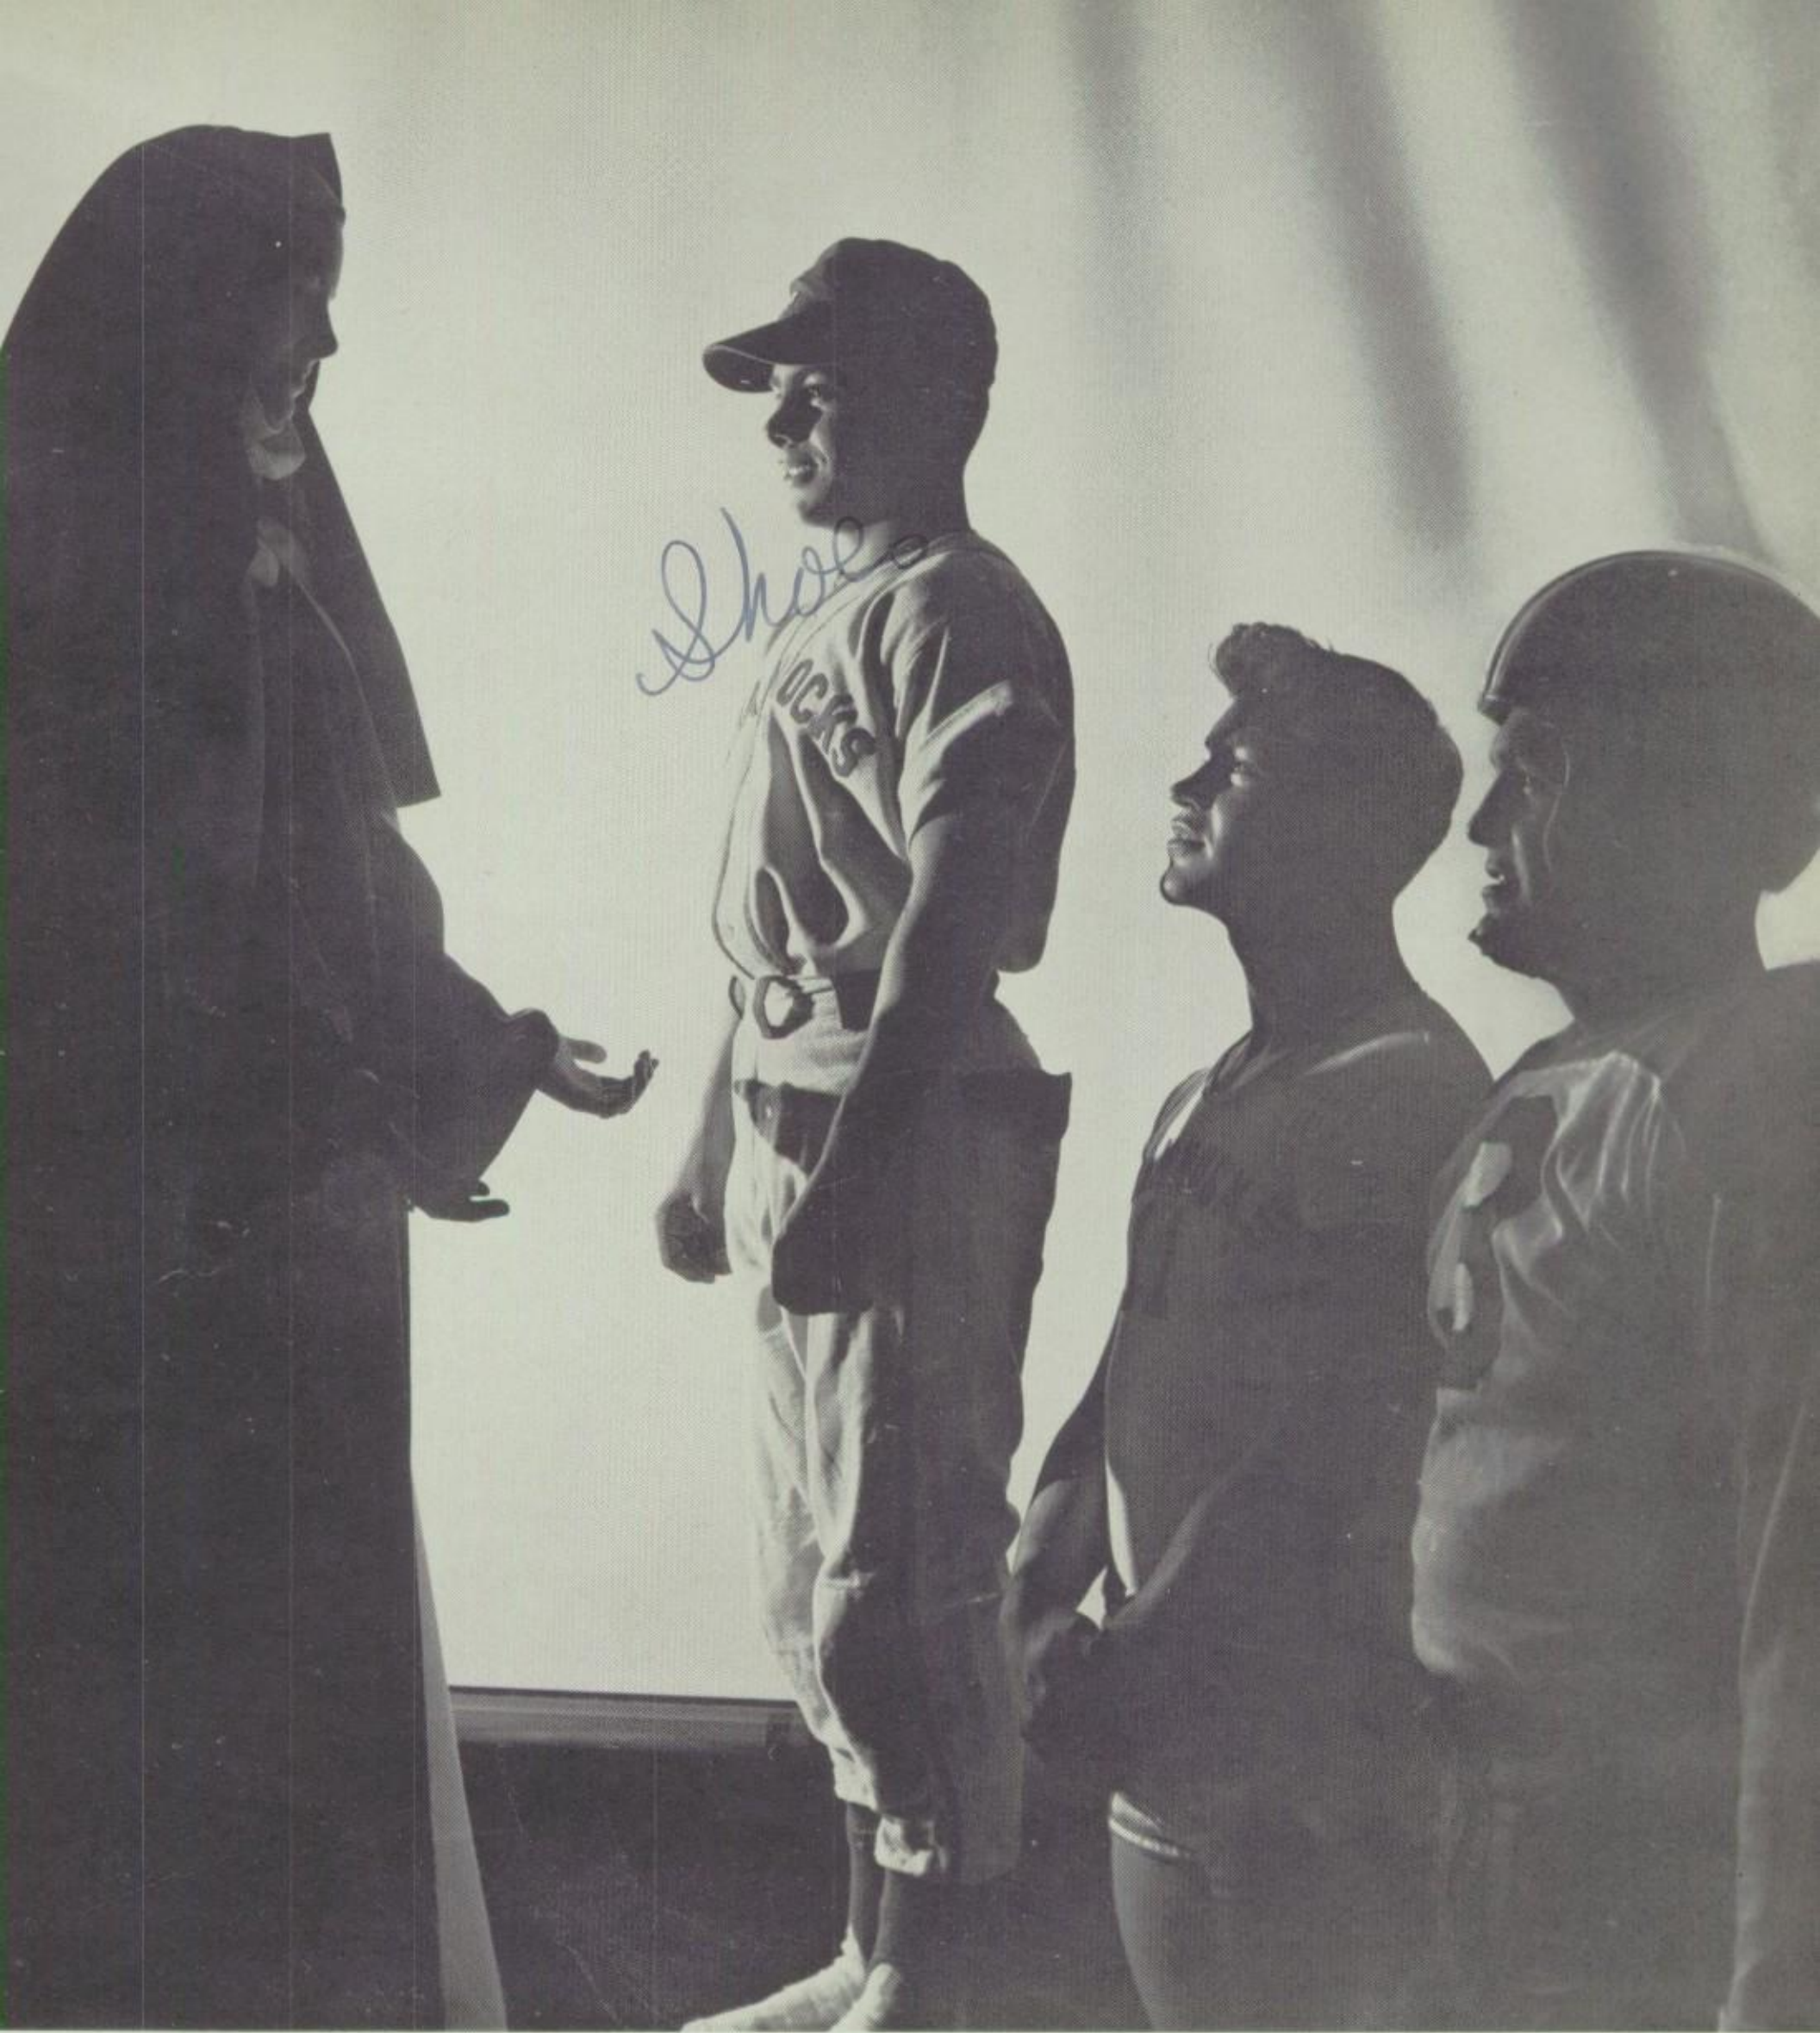

The Junior Homeroom teachers, Sister Mary Aniceta, Sister Aquinas, and Sister Therese Martin, plus the cooperation of the committee and the Junior class, hope the Prom; to be held May 5 in the P.C.H. auditorium, will be a success. Pictured, seated, are: Frances Maloney, Carol Miklich, Barbara Gorshe, Sherman French, Mary Lynn Wagner, and Louis Doyle. Standing are: Anthony Capozzola and Don Vigil. Absent: Janet Schum.

As the soft music of Jimmy Howard's orchestra plays the night away, Queen Sally Beatty, and her court, Princesses Lillian Luna, Barbara Lest, Pat Ovechka, and Daphne Kletzky, reign happily over the Junior-Senior Prom.

*Dear Sally,
I hope you

Reuben Trinidad breaks loose for a substantial gain against the Walsenburg Crusaders. Ray De Luca (33) and Frank Gutierrez (32) lead the interference as Crusader end, Jim Britt (35) attempts to halt the play.

Joe Puleo stalls the spearing attack of of the Walsenburg Crusaders.

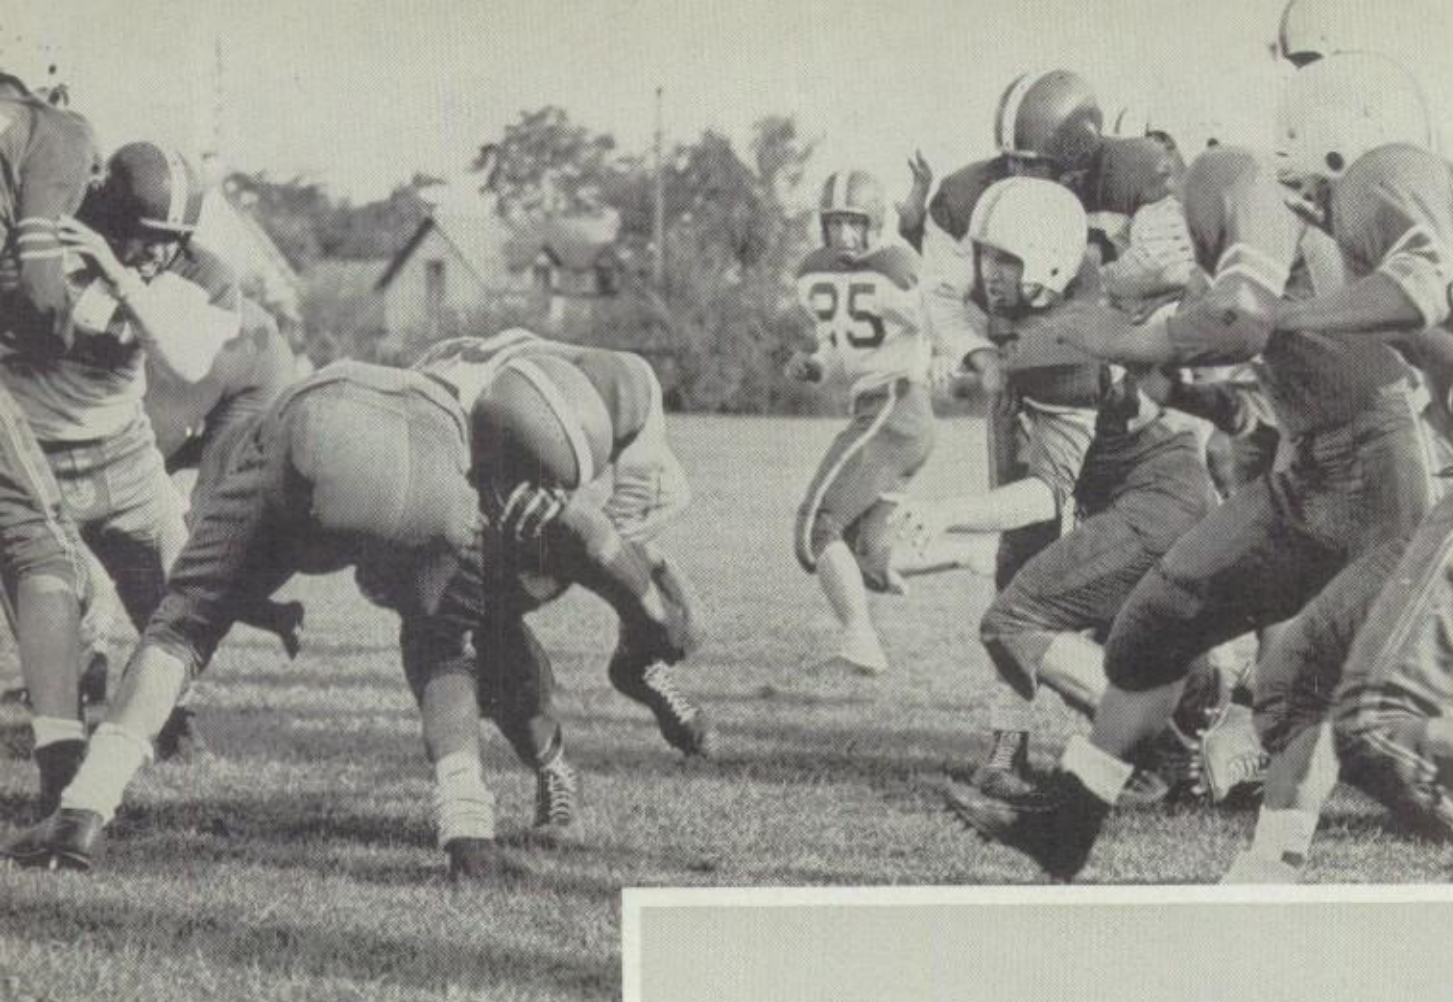

Don Beauvais thwarts the roaring Tigers.

Reuben Trinidad bowls over a La Junta defender to score the first Shamrock tally in the Irish-Tiger tussle. Frank Gutierrez (32) hits the dirt as La Junta's Bill Haberman (10) makes a vain effort to reach the play.

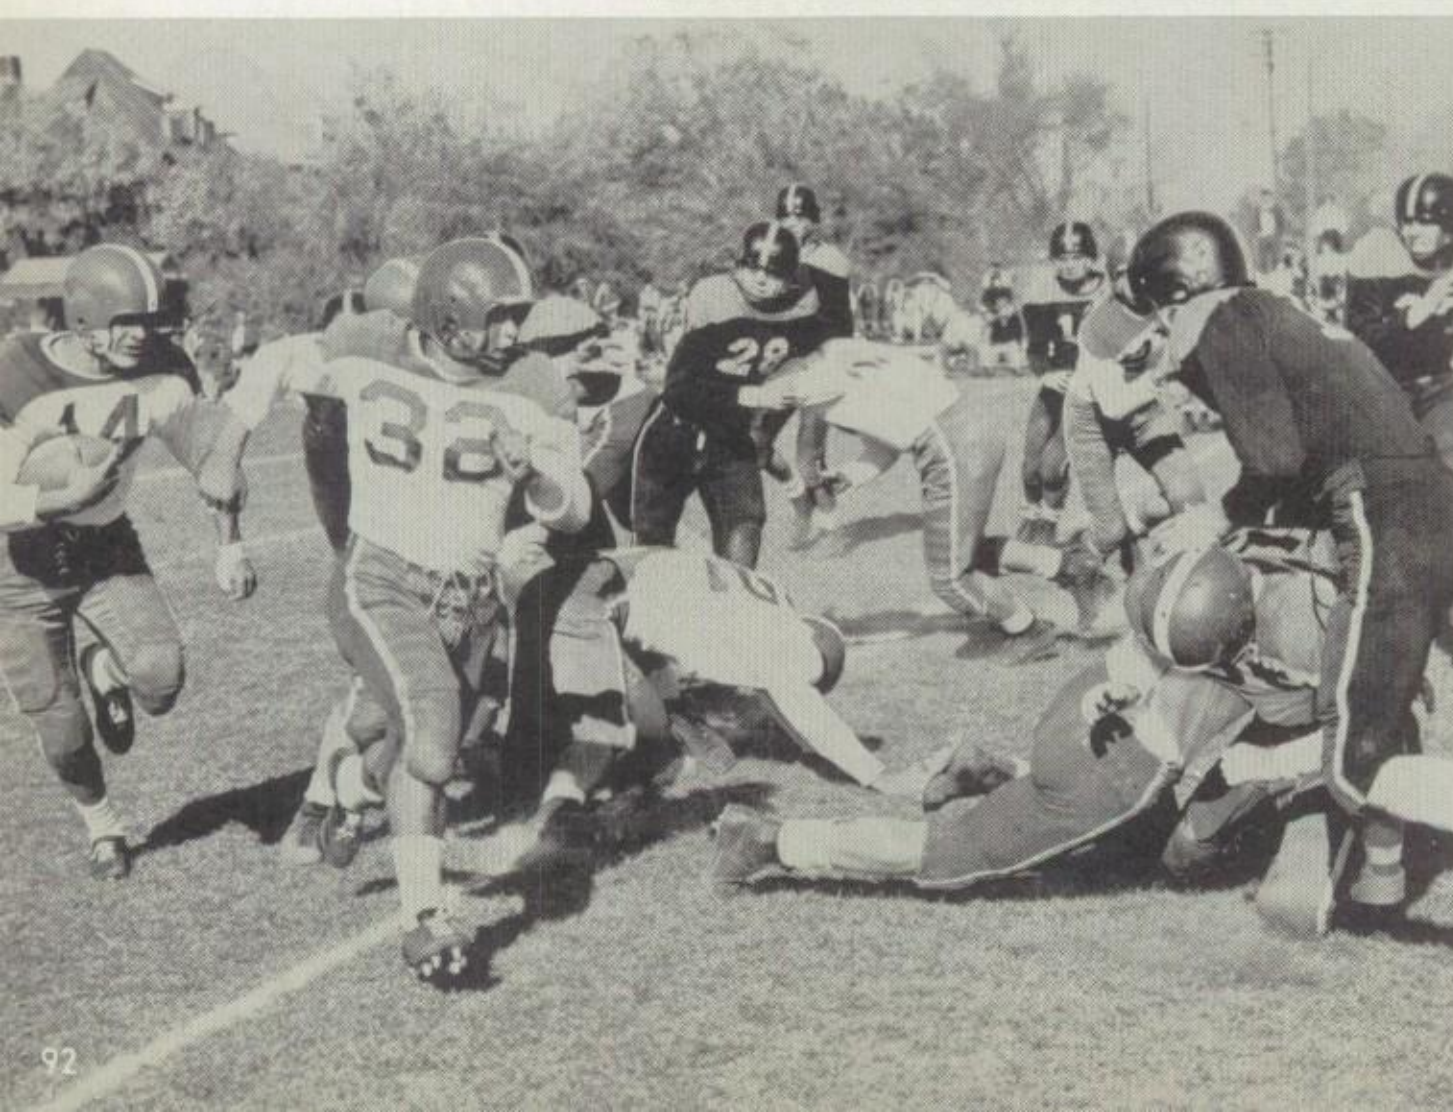

A host of Trinidad Miners blast through to smother Don Beauvais after a short gain. Other Shamrocks are: Art McKenna (11) and Jack Drury (25). The Shamrocks downed the Miners, 14-0.

Returning a punt, Frank Gutierrez is smashed to the turf by a trio of Walsenburg tacklers. Also seen are Shamrocks Henry Cicero (18) and Joe Pannunzio (9) and Crusader Augie Olivas (25). The Irish won the game 27-12.

Shamrock blockers lead the way as Reuben Trinidad steams around end for much needed yardage against LaJunta. Clearing the path is Frank Gutierrez (32) with identified Tiger player, Ken Bridges (28).

Reuben Trinidad and Henry Cicero down Jim San Filippo after a short gain in the Regis game. Looking on are Shamrocks Joe Pannunzio (9) and Charles Greco (16) and Raider Gary Osborn (41). The Irish edged the Raiders 7-0.

Charles Greco makes a diving catch in the end zone of a 28 yard pass from Dan Maroney while Abbey's Joe Duca is unable to break up the play. Although the touchdown brought the Shamrocks within one point of the Bears 13-12, Abbey blocked the extra point and went on to win 20-12.

Assistant Coach Frank Flood looks on as Head Coach Mike Davlin gives some pointers to five senior lettermen, Don Beauvais, Art McKenna, Henry Cicero, Joe Puleo, and Reuben Trinidad.

Starters for the Shamrock were linemen: Jim Drury, Art McKenna, Dale Bensko, Lane Faricy, Mike Badovinac, Joe Puleo, and Charles Greco. Backfield starters were Don Beauvais, Frank Gutierrez, Jack Drury and Reuben Trinidad.

A GLANCE AT THE SEASON

The 1954 Shamrock Grid team turned out to be full of surprises. Achieving an average two win, two loss record in League play and finishing third in the title race, the Green tide showed its strength by winning over several strong non-League teams.

Getting off to a slow start, the Shamrock dropped their opener 26-0 under the lights at Lamar. Hampered by a lack of experience the Sons of Erin fell easy prey to the revenge-seeking Savages.

Led by Halfback Reuben Trinidad, the Shamrock came roaring back a week later to trounce the Florence Huskies 14-0.

Playing their first home game the Irish scored a smashing 14-0 upset over the powerful Trinidad Miners, September 25. The Shamrock blasted for two touchdowns and a safety while the Miners could not tunnel through the Green and White stonewall defense.

The hot and cold Irish had another off day October 1, as they were downed 19-6 by the speedy Centennial Bulldogs. The Shamrocks trailed 19-0 until late in the last quarter when Don Beauvais sprinted 42 yards for the lone Irish tally.

With four tough non-league games under their belts, the Shamrocks opened their league season successfully with a 25-7 victory over the St. Mary's Pirates, October 10 at Colorado Springs.

Homecoming, October 17, found the Shamrocks victors over the St. Mary's Crusaders of Walsenburg by a 27-12 score. Six players entered the Irish scoring act and Augis Olivas returned a punt 99 yards for Walsenburg's second touchdown.

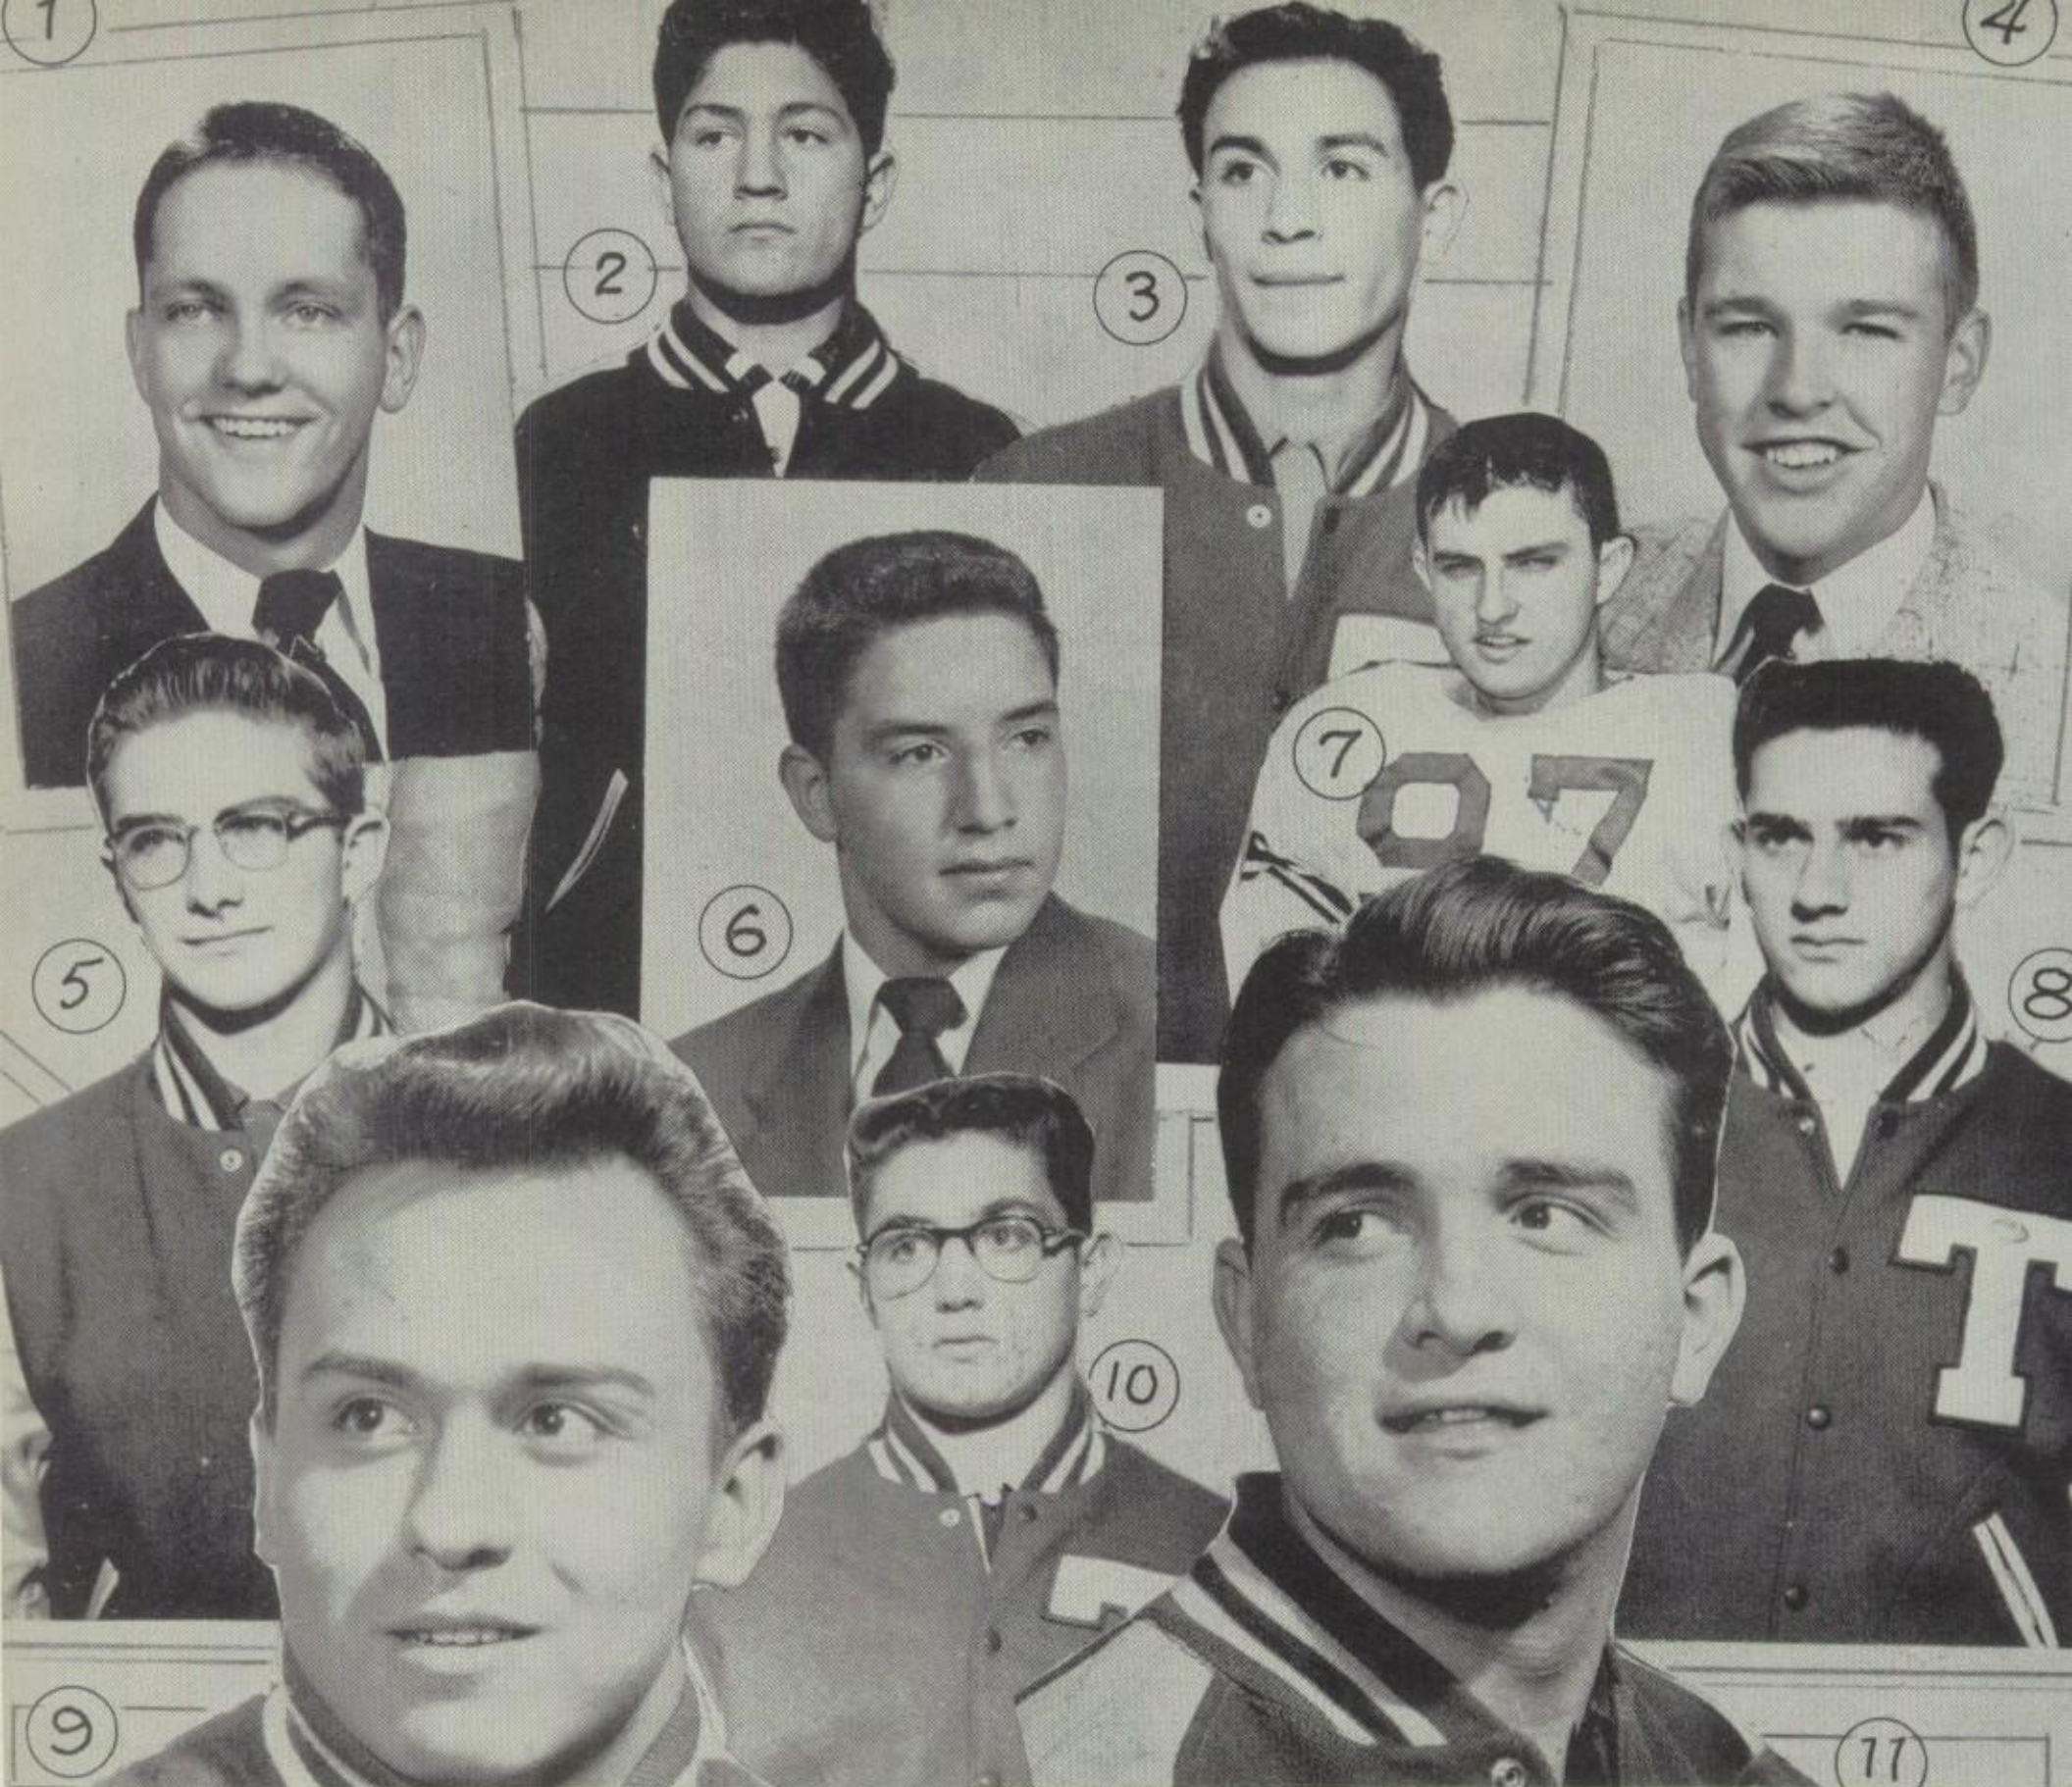

On October 23, the Shamrocks met and tamed the hustling La Junta Tigers 24-7. Displaying a powerful ground attack the Shamrocks crossed the goal once in every quarter while La Junta scored their lone tally via the air lanes.

The Sons of Erin extended their winning streak to four games on October 31 by edging the Regis Raiders 7-0. After striking early in the game for their touchdown, the Shamrocks relied on their strong defense to hold the heavier Denver team scoreless.

The Shamrock received their worst beating of the year at Trinidad November 7, when the Holy Trinity Tigers capped the League crown by trampling the Green and White 28-0.

Trying for second place in the league, the Irish were thwarted again as the Abbey Bears took to the air to down the Shamrocks 20-12. Joe Duca passed for two Abbey touchdowns as the Bears spoiled the Shamrocks' last grid game and downed the Irish for the third, straight year.

ROBERTA RILEY—CHEERLEADER

TO ROBERTA

Many students take the final score of a football game all in their stride, but to a cheerleader like Roberta Riley, the game, the players and their efforts were all part of her vibrant, young life. She prayed with the team before every game and played with them in spirit, cheering them on to victory and sometimes to defeat.

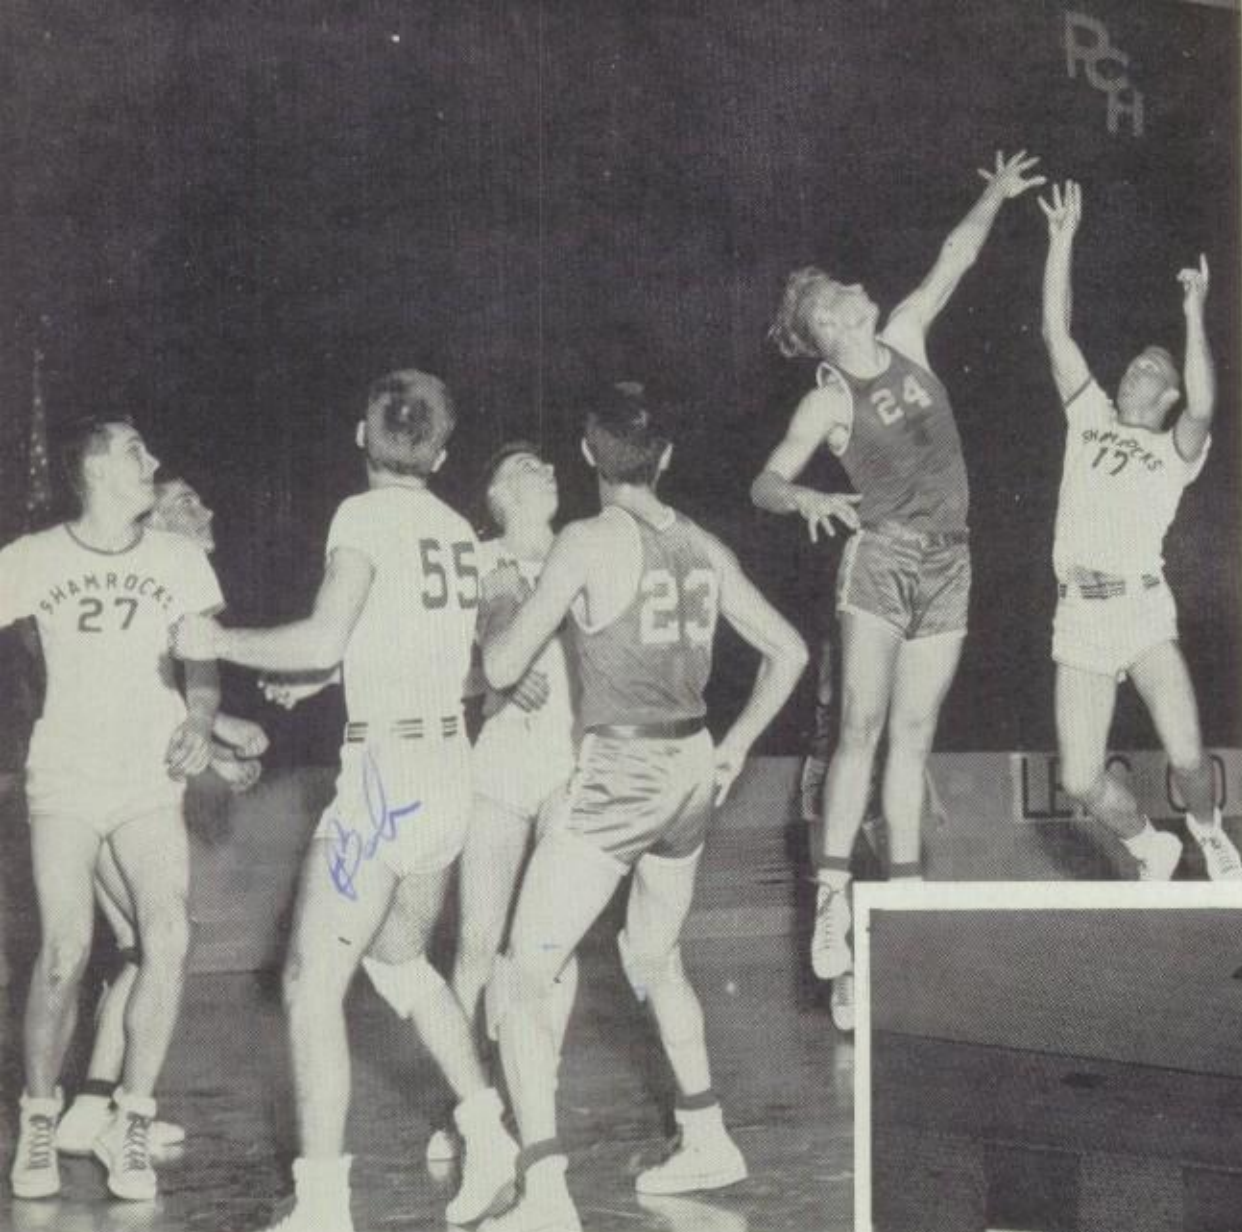

Roberta never gave up hope. During a game, no matter how lopsided the score, she kept cheering and praying for a higher score for her Shamrocks. Her life was dedicated to her school activities. Everyone and everything about Catholic High was her life.

The joy of winning and the heartaches of losing were all dearly felt by her. The outcome of all sports events meant just as much to her as they did to the members of the team.

Although Roberta will never be jumping high for the Shamrocks, she will be cheering for them in Heaven, whenever they take the field or court for an athletic contest.

We miss her greatly and shall continue to do so. In our hearts we know that she is cheering us on from her Heavently Goal Post.

Jim Drury shoots up and over the outstretched arms of a Regis Raider as John Williams, Bob Pugel, and Tom Pettit eagerly await the rebound.

John Williams drives around two Walsenburg defenders and tallies two for the Irish. Bob Pugel comes in for assistance.

1954-55 BASKETBALL

In the first year under their new Coach, John Neari, the Shamrock basketball team faced a complete rebuilding program. Playing with almost no experience they were unable to win a non-league game and finished in a battle with the Walsenburg Crusaders to stay out of the League cellar.

Early in the season, Coach Neari began his rebuilding program which placed several Sophomores on the varsity. Ray De Luca and John Lane alternated on the starting five while Dave Socier and Ted Vidmar served as substitutes.

The team was paced by Senior lettermen Bob Pugel and Reuben Trinidad, Junior monogram winner Jim Drury and Junior John Williams. Williams topped the Shamrocks in the scoring department. Juniors Tom Clementi and Louis Doyle saw action as varsity substitutes.

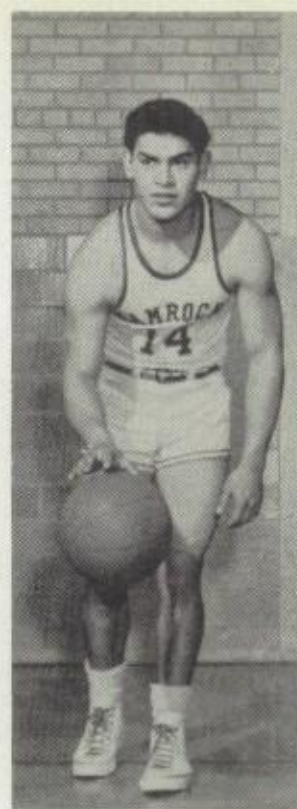

With the close of the regular "B" squad season, several more Sophomores and Freshmen were brought up to the varsity for additional experience.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Giving boys, not playing varsity basketball, a chance to compete in athletics, Intramural basketball was revived this year under the guidance of Student Council.

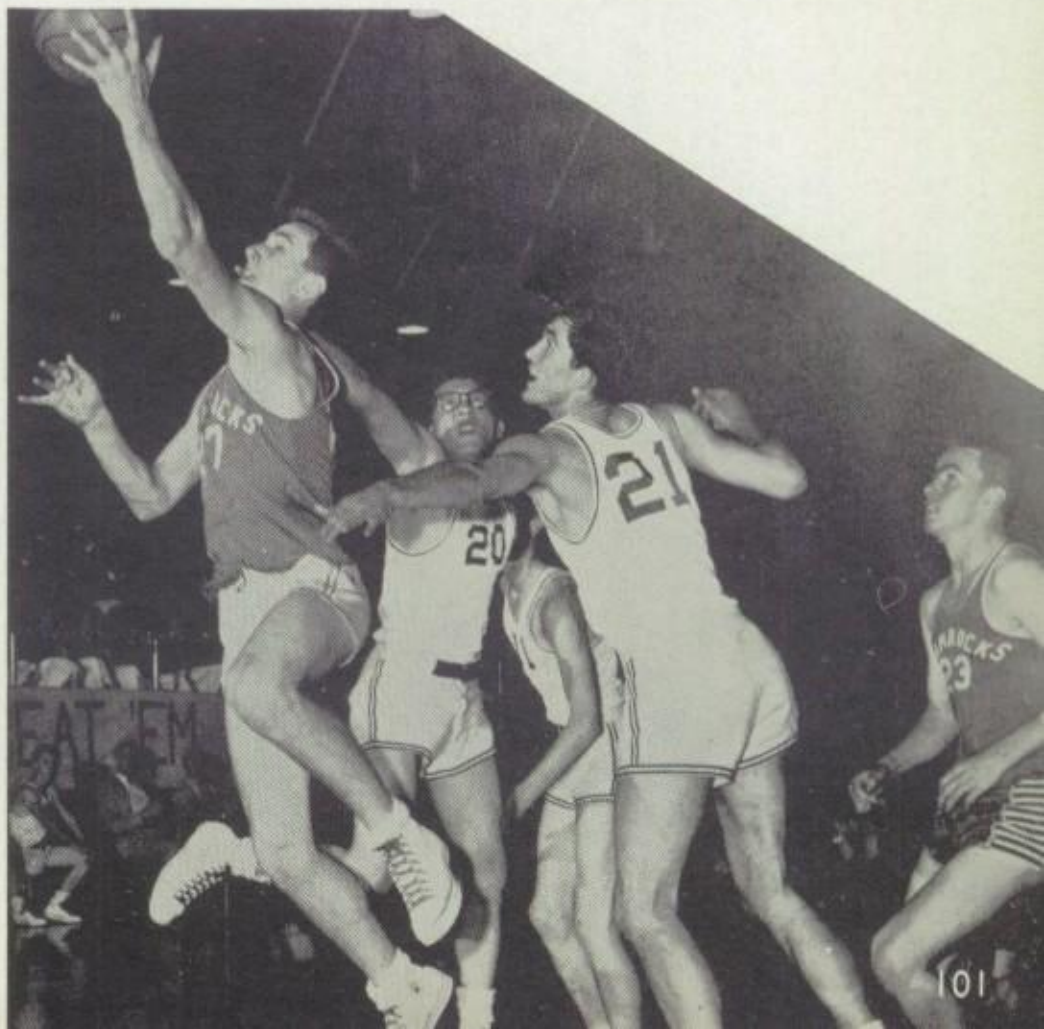

Competition ran high in the League, with long set shots and twenty-foot hooks anything but uncommon.

Seven teams took part in the League which was won by the Galloping Gaels.

SPORTS BANQUET

Ralph Gugliemi, Notre Dame All-American quarterback, was the chief speaker as Catholic High's annual Sports Banquet at the Minnequa Club March 13.

Jack Lacy, Sr. was toastmaster for the event which honored all boys who participated in athletics during the past year.

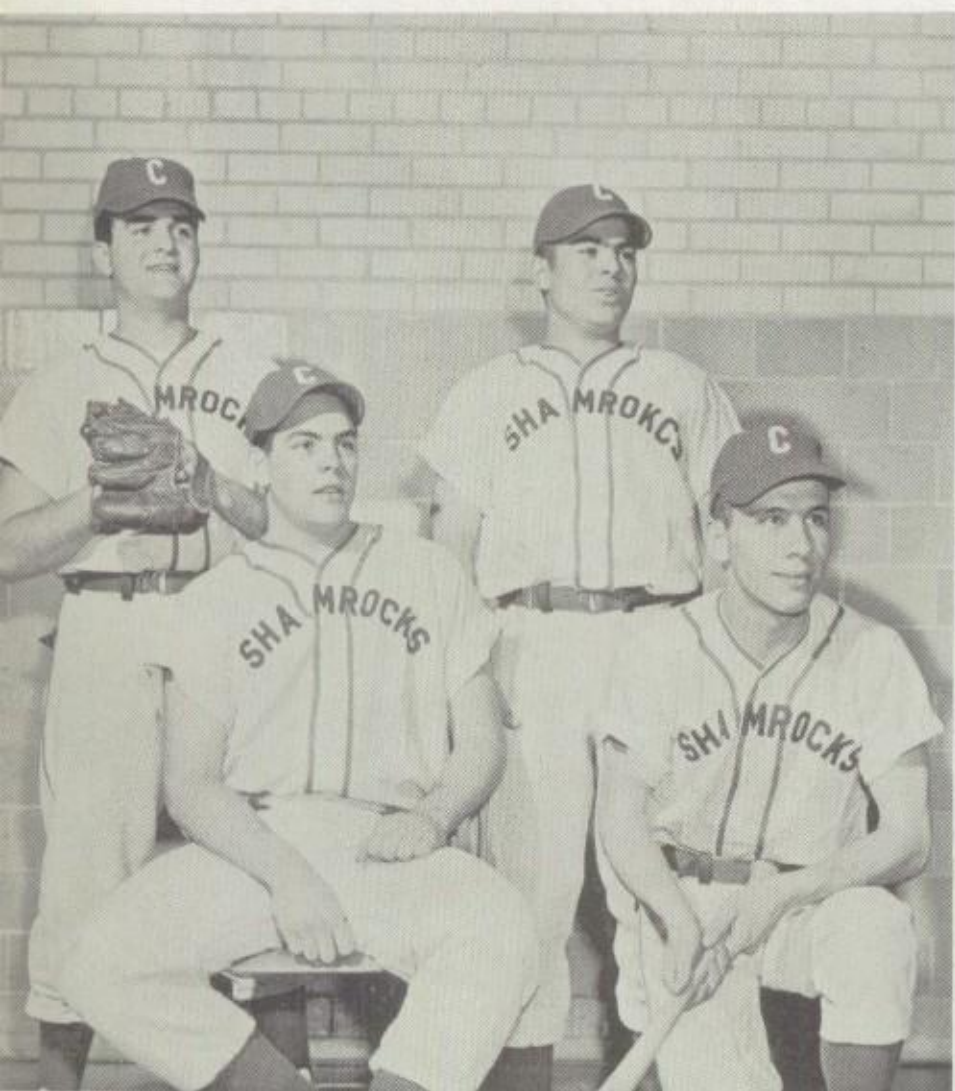

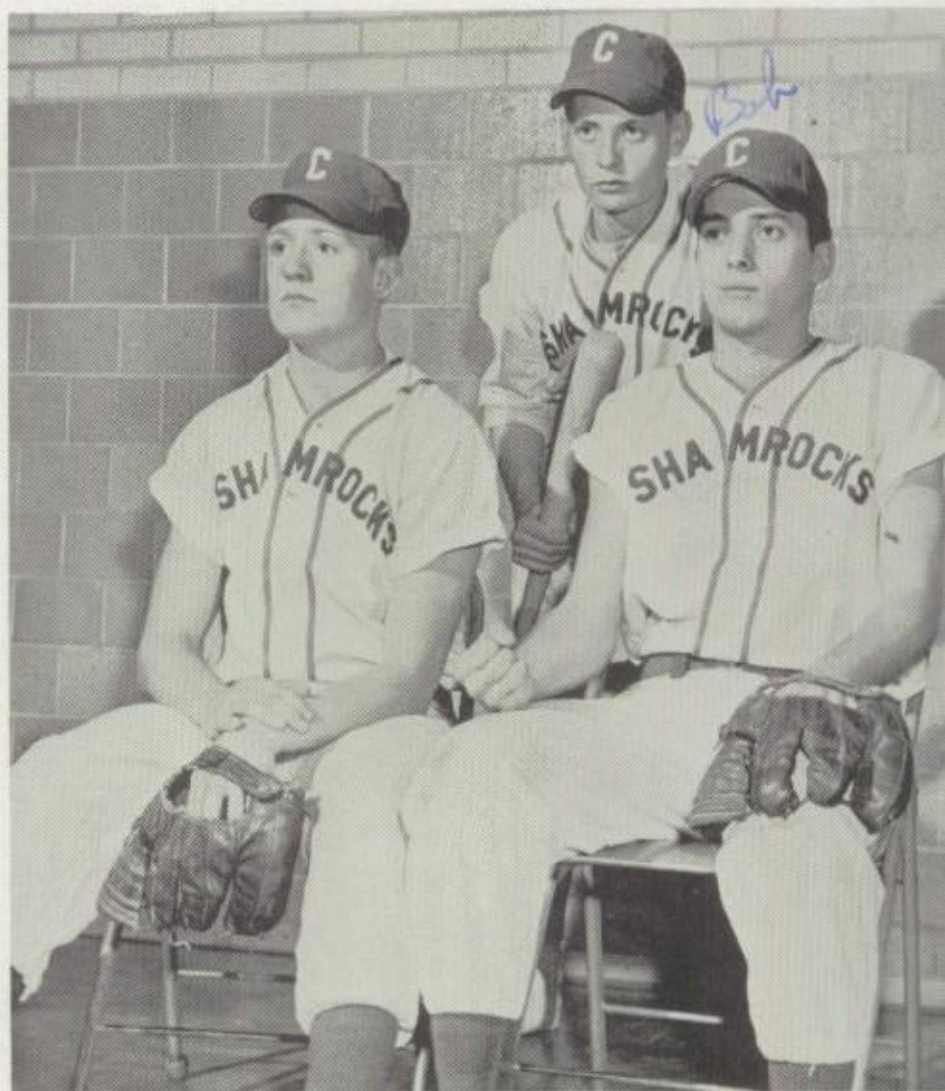

Shamrock hopes for a successful baseball season rested on these seven lettermen. Standing: Joe Pannunzio, Lyle Creager, Henry Cicero, Bob Pugel and Coach John Neri. Seated: Joe Puleo, Dan Maroney and Ray Horvat.

Four star pitcher Joe Puleo spearheaded the Irish attack as they opened their season this spring. Other members of the Shamrock battery are two year lettermen Henry Cicero and Joe Pannunzio, catchers, and Dan Maroney, pitcher.

Determination marks these Shamrock infielders. Standing is Lyle Creager. Seated: Ray Horvat and Bob Pugel.

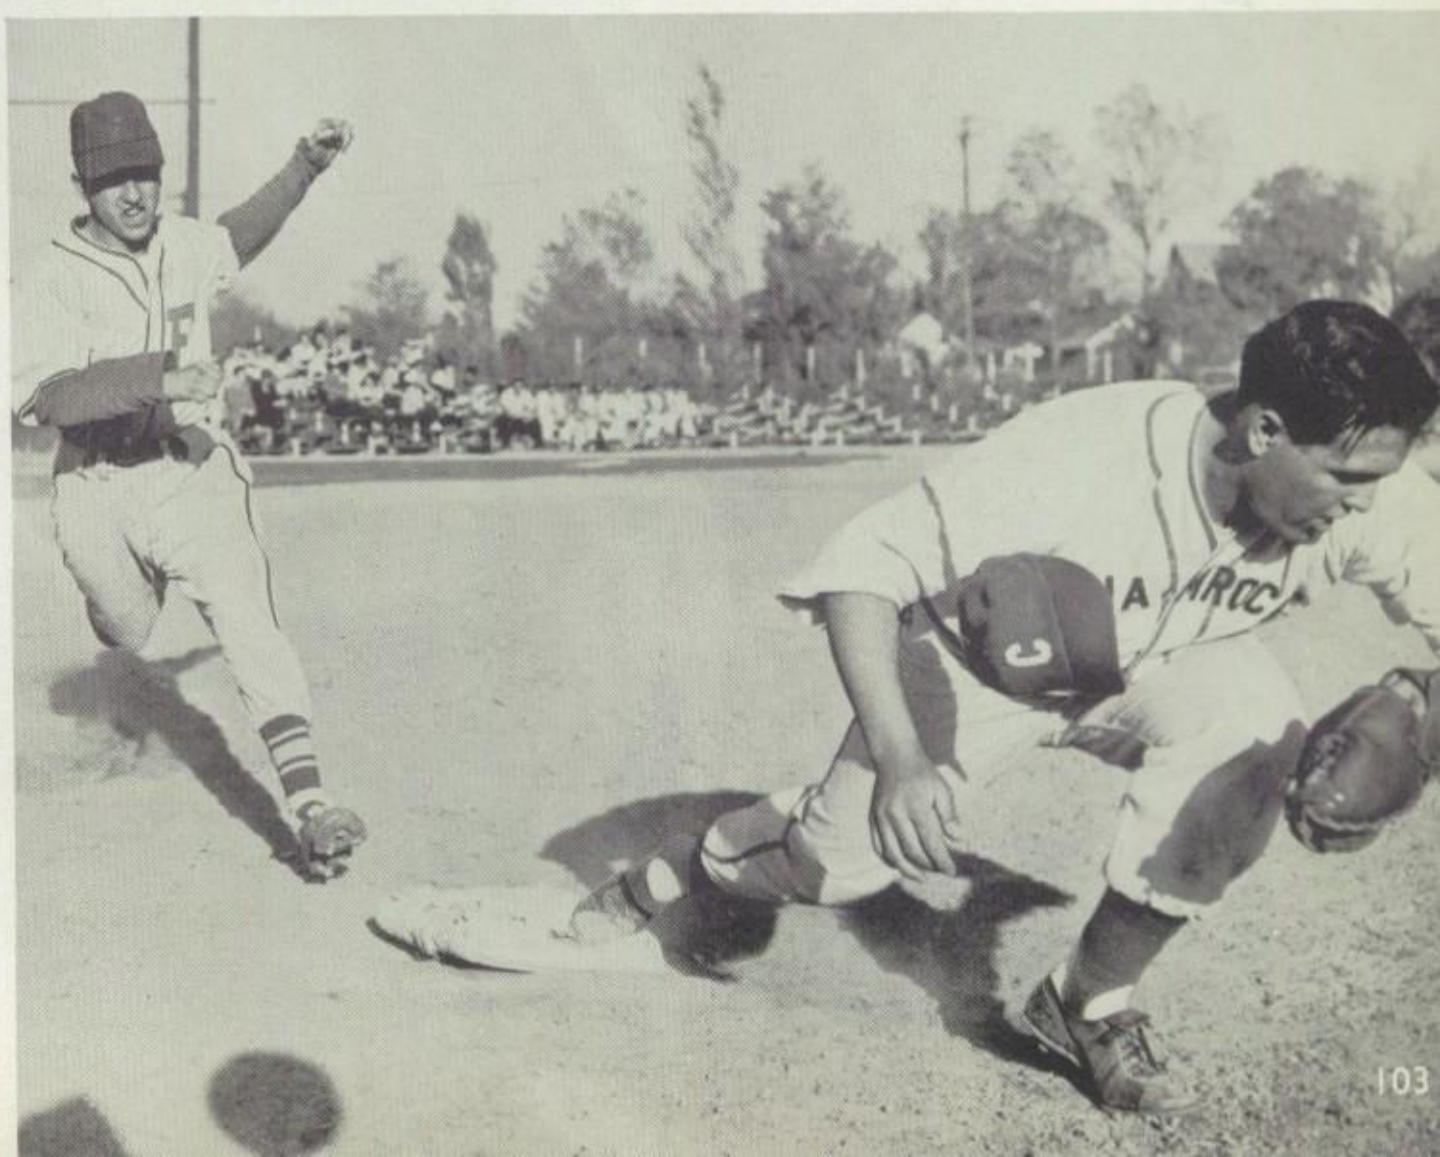

"You're out!" shouts the umpire as catcher Henry Cicero skillfully blocks the plate to prevent a crucial run from scoring.

"It's a hit!" Joe Puleo, Irish pitcher, raps a sharp single to left field to help his own cause.

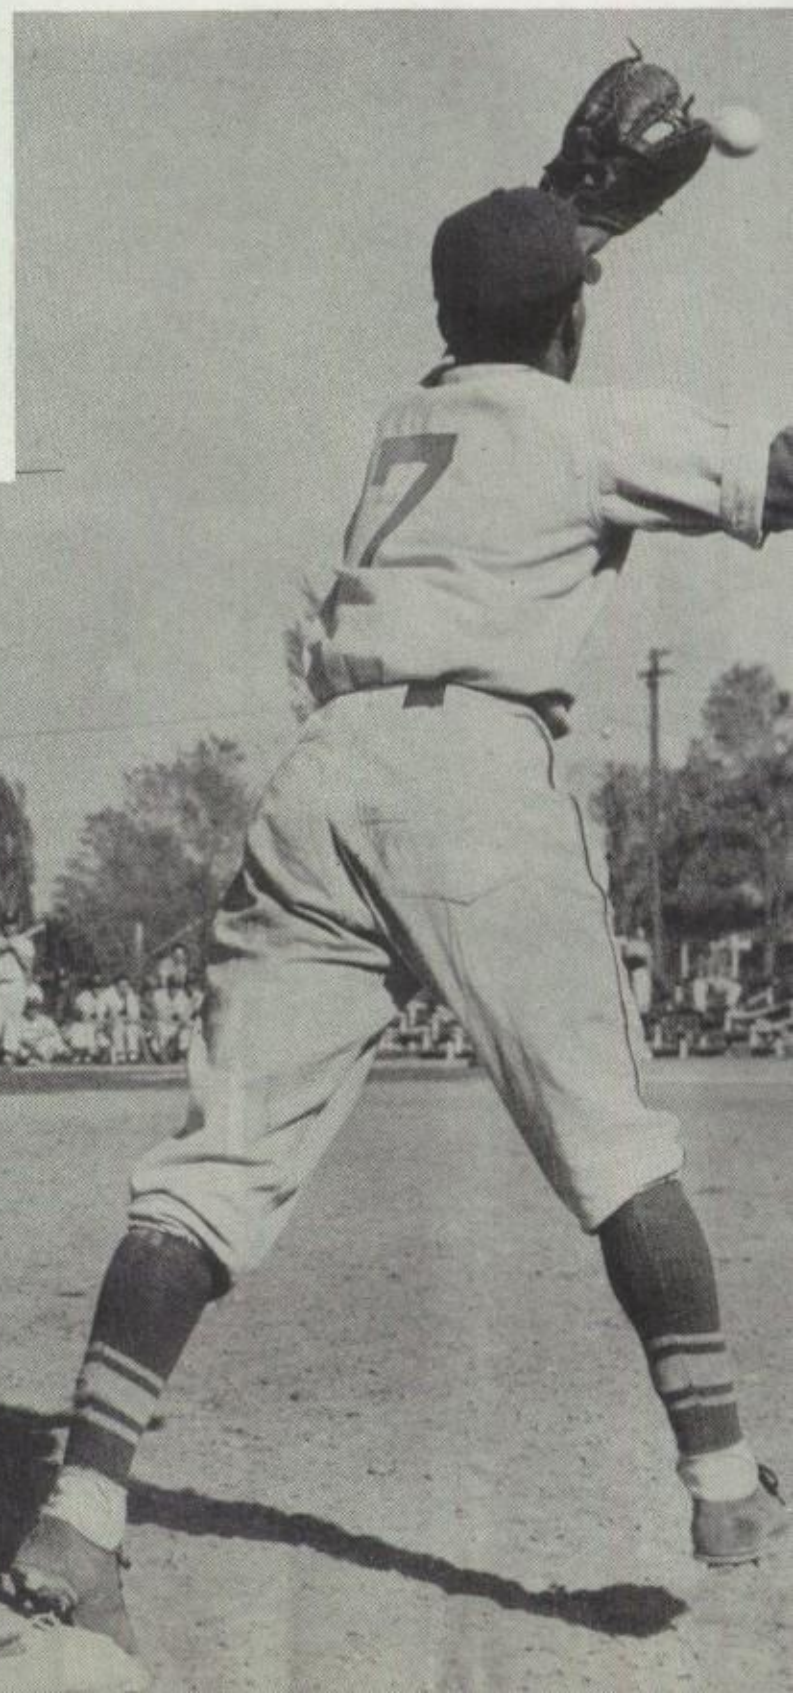

"Double play!" Joe Puleo, first sacker, stretches to complete a beautifully executed twin killing.

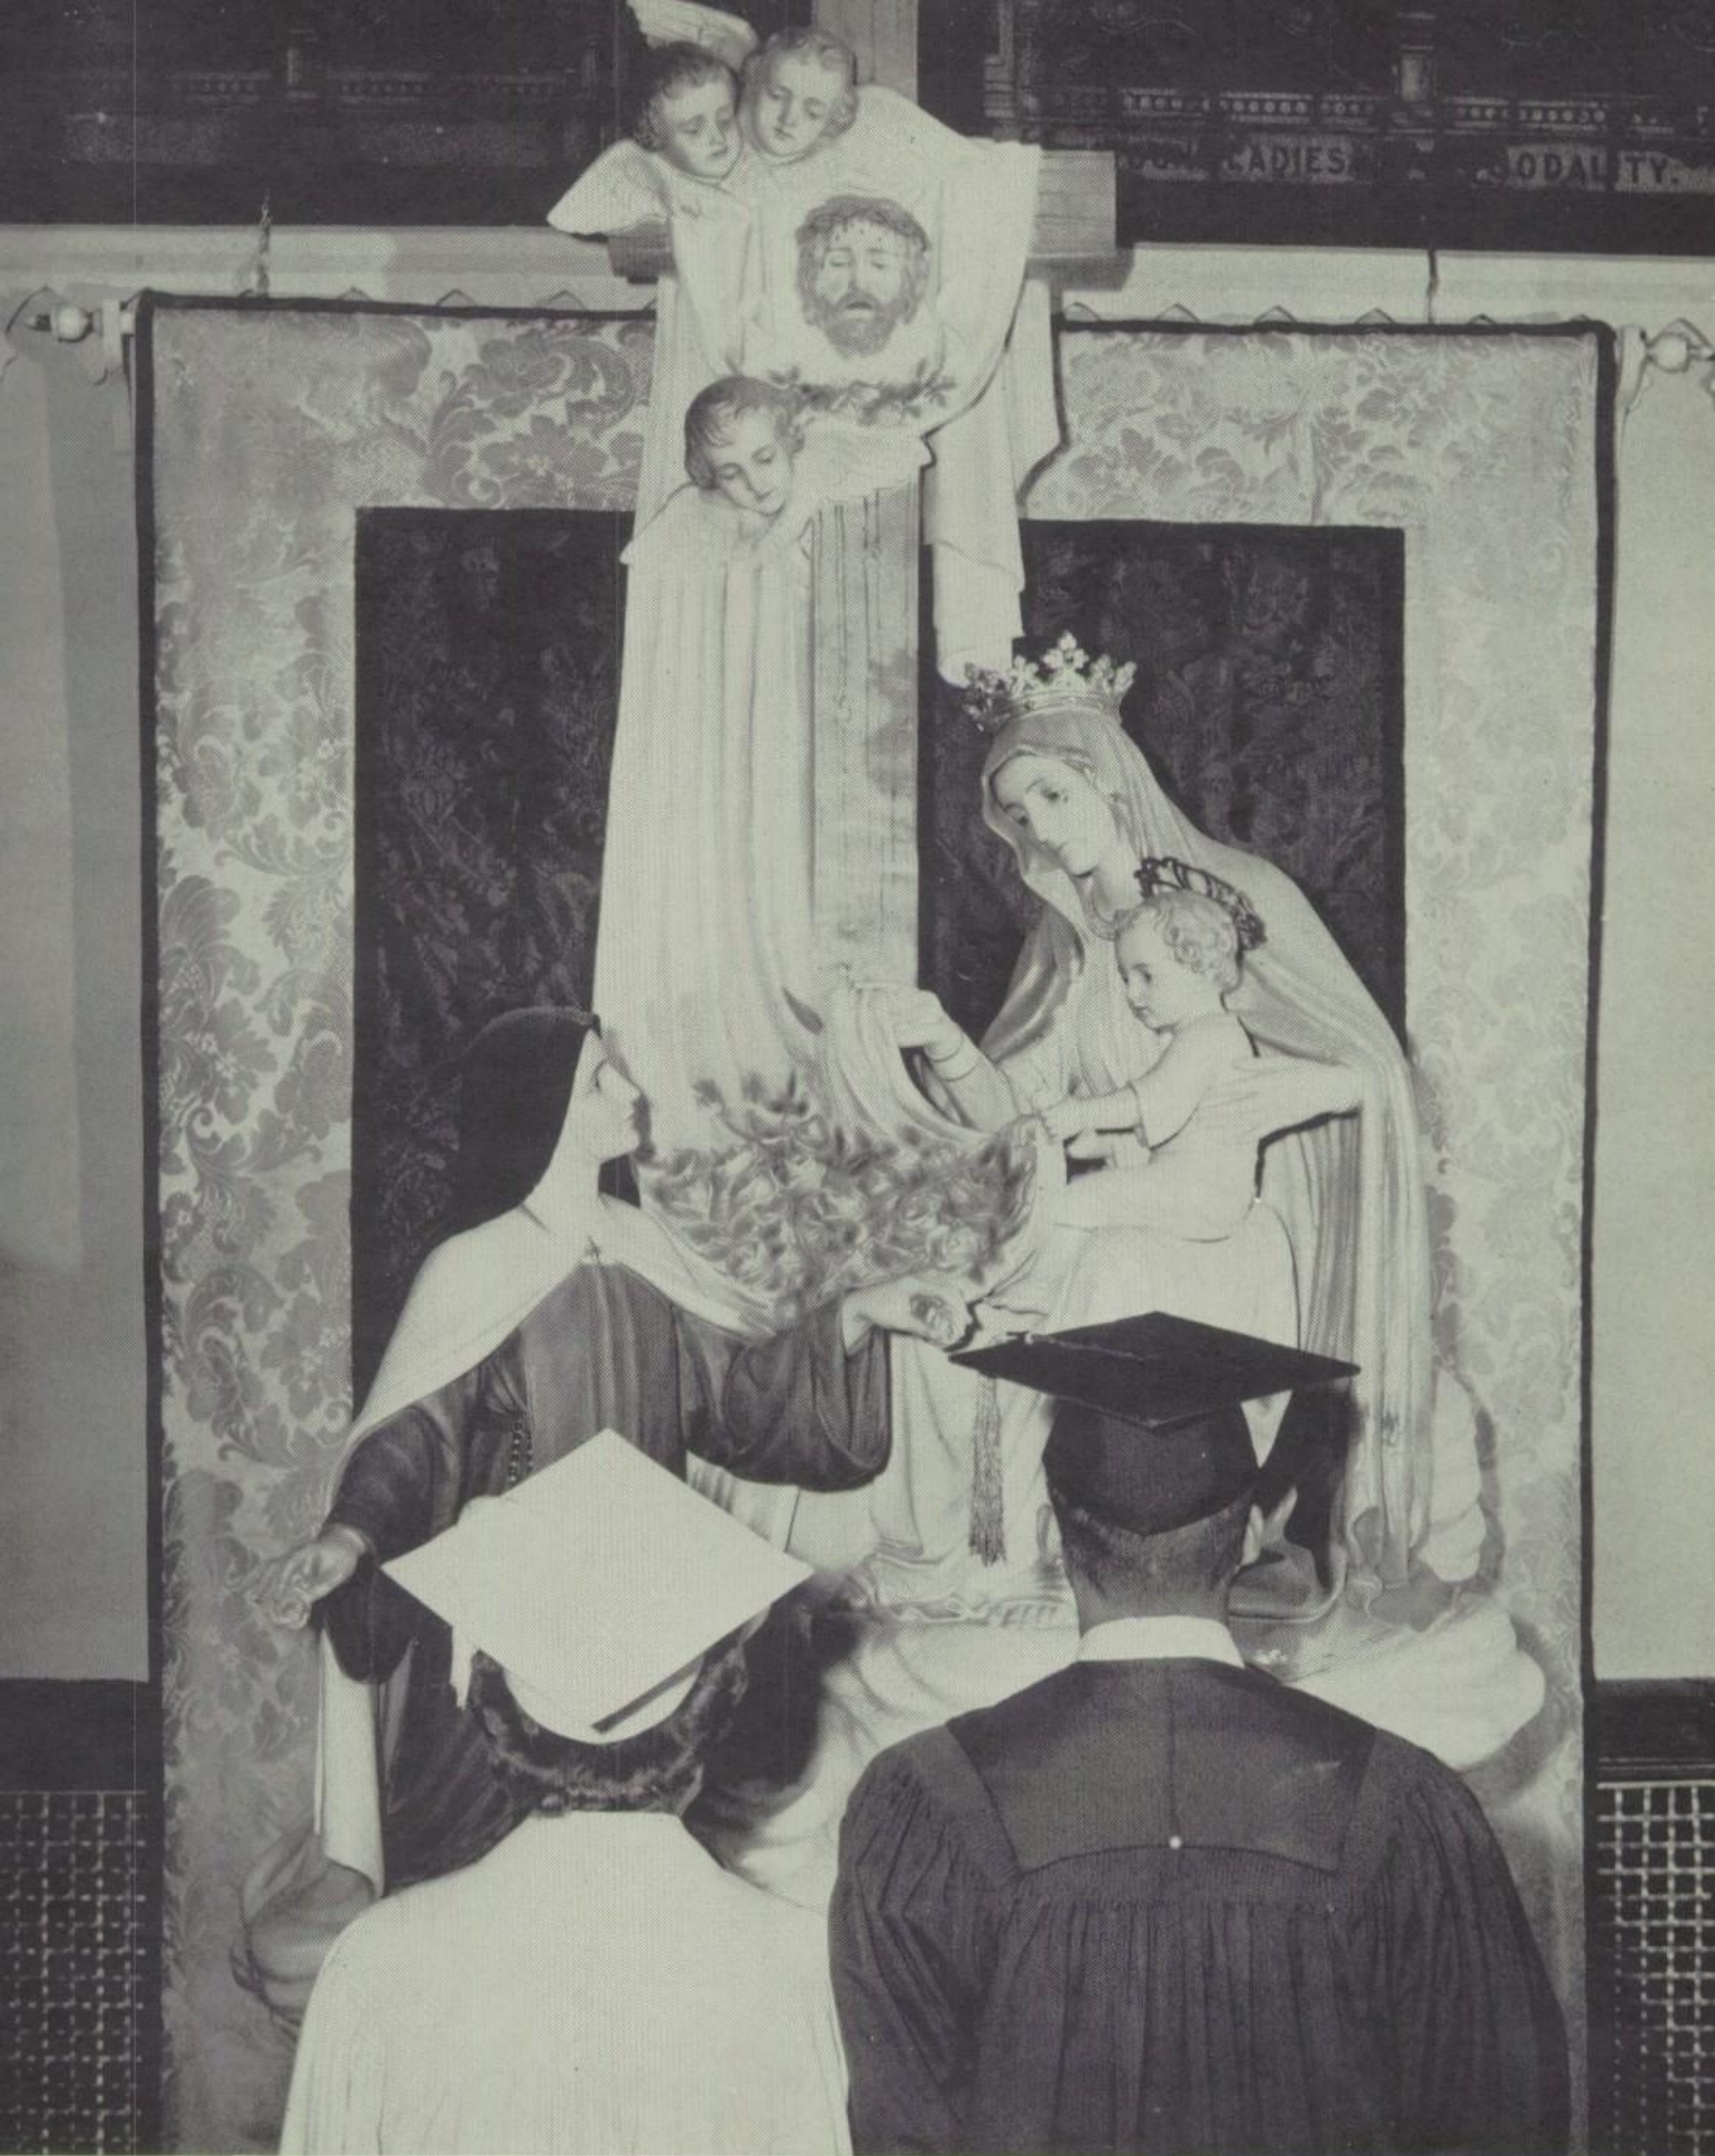

"Welcome home, Joe!" Irish catcher, Joe Pannunzio scampers across the plate safely for another Shamrock score.

"Mighty close, Bob!" Third sacker Bob Pugel tries in vain as he is out in a close play at first.

We, the Senior Class of 1955, humbly beg you, St. Therese, patroness of the diocese of Pueblo, to guide and protect us in this life "so that, the battle of life over . . . our class may reassemble, without the loss of any one, in the Kingdom of Thy Love and Glory."

~~Reserved~~
Sue,
Here's wishing the best to the second best cheerleader around. Roberta thought a lot of all the cheerleaders and cheerleading was her favorite thing. Pray for me and remember me. Ask her to give me the power to carry on and lead a good life.
Do good in school and get that
A grade. May God bless you always.
Pray for me.
Love
Bob

Good Sue
Got a fresh
to a real sweet
